300 protest over plan to close Lyme library

By Philip Evans

LYME Regis residents turned out in force on Saturday morning to protest over the possible closure of the town library by Dorset County Council.

Following a public meeting when residents were urged to support the national "Save Our Libraries Day", around 300 protesters gathered outside the library in Silver Street with banners urging the county council not to "make this the final chapter" for Lyme library.

Among those supporting the protest were internationally-acclaimed children's authors Laurence and Catherine Anholt.

THEATRE lover Jodie Glover, 17, will this week be setting off to London to chase her West End dreams.

Having begun performing in Bridport at the age of 10, Jodie has had principal roles with Bridport Musical Theatre Company (BMT), Marvellous Amateur Dramatics (MAD) and Encore Theatre Club as well as many others.

Most recently she played the lead role of Peggy Sawyer in BMT's production of 42nd Street at the Bridport Arts Centre.

This year she will be auditioning for stage schools in London, with her first appointment this week at the famous Italia Conti Academy.

Back home in Bridport Jodie is lead choreographer in her school's entry for Rock Challenge, an international dance competition promoting moral lifestyles for teenagers.

Jodie's next theatre role in Bridport will be as Angie in the Madness musical "Our House". The show is the latest production from MAD who will be performing in Bridport for the first time. The show will run from March 31st to April 2nd at the Electric Palace.

■ HOW did you first become involved with theatre?

When I was about 10 I joined a theatre school and went every Saturday. I loved it, but it cost a lot so I had to be pulled out. So I joined Bridport Operatic Workshop and have been performing in community shows since.

■ WHAT has been your favourite role?

It's a tie between Scaramouche in We Will Rock You, Helena in A Midsummer Night's Dream and Peggy Sawyer in 42nd as they're all so different.

■ DO you have any memories of embarrassing moments on stage?

I remember in a primary school play I was the Rooster in Rooster Rag, I had to run across the stage at one point and the stage pallets separated. As I fell through the gap the set fell down on top of me. I just pulled myself up and carried on running.

■ ARE you like your character in Our House?

I would say she's a louder version of me. I think we have the same sense of humour but I wouldn't have the guts to say the stuff she says out loud.

■ WHAT are your favourite songs in the show?

I really like the full cast numbers such as Baggy trousers,

Our house and Tomorrow's just another day. My two favourites however are; Wings of a Dove as I love the Caribbean theme and the fact it's set in Las Vegas and Driving in my car as it is a really comical number.

■ IF your not a fan of Madness would you still enjoy the show?

I definitely think so. The storyline is different to every other type of musical and the lead character has such a technically hard part to play, including 27 costume changes, it's definitely worth watching.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

■ DO you prefer the modern musicals or the old favourites?

It's a real mix. I grew up watching all the old films, my favourites were Calamity Jane and Summer Holiday. But now I really enjoy discovering new musicals. Musicals I really like at the moment are Rent and Wicked.

■ WHAT would be your dream West End role?

I would love to play Scaramouche again but this time in London instead of school. However, my ultimate target is to play Christine Daae in Phantom of the Opera.

■ WHAT is rock challenge?

Rock challenge is a global dance competition. It's aim is to promote healthy living and a natural high without the aid of smoking, drugs or alcohol. Each year thousands of schools worldwide compete with a eight minute themed dance that sends out a message to all those who watch it. Our regional heat is at Southampton Guildhall on February 28th.

Our theme for this year's Rock Challenge is about generation stereotypes. We believe that generations don't respect and listen to each other anymore, so our dance shows a group of unwilling school children listening to the story of a Blitz survivor.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?

Remember Me? By Sophie Kinsella, Carousel and the Rent Soundtrack.

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party and why?

Idina Menzel a Broadway, TV and film star and also my idol, Audrey Hepburn as she's an absolute icon and Regina Spektor, my favourite singer.

'Outrage' over library closures

Other authors present included Rikey Austin, of Alice's Bear Shop fame, and Gillian Cross, author of the award winning "Demon Headmaster" series of Children's books, travelled to Lyme Regis from her home in Shaftsbury to show her concern against the closure of libraries.

Protestors included children, the elderly and the disabled demonstrated their support by withdrawing as many books as they could. Nearly 200 signatures were collected on petitions to add to the 550 collected previously in the town.

One elderly resident who joined the protest said that if the Lyme library was closed she would be unable to get to Bridport as she would have to use two buses, explaining that the Town Bus service did not meet the number 31 bus so it would take many hours to travel to and from Bridport.

At least two users asked how they could in future get the large print or audio books, needed as they could not read normal print books.

Speaking for the campaigners, Anita Williams said they were "extremely pleased" with the turn out at the protest, especially given the poor weather. There was a range of age groups showing that the library is important to the young and the not so young. The consensus of opinion was that it was just not feasible for many to travel to and from Bridport to access library services.

Said Ms Williams: "People really are outraged at the idea of our Library being closed whilst those in other areas will remain; the message from Lyme and the other 19 libraries under threat is that we want to be here for the future: the current savings should be achieved by cuts across ALL 34 libraries, leaving time for each of those 34 to discuss in depth with the library service and with their communities how to shape their service in the future."

Campaigners await an update on the discussions of the county council Policy Development Panel who are considering the matter further.

Anyone who wishes to protest against the closure of the libraries is asked to write to Oliver Letwin MP and to Tracy Long at Dorset County Council.

Anyone willing to help with the campaign is asked to contact Wendy Davies on wendy@lrdt.co.uk or by telephoning 01297 445853.

Snowdrop service

A Snowdrop Service of Remembrance will take place at the parish church in Lyme Regis tomorrow (Thursday) at 11am.

The service is organised by the Weldmar Hospicecare Trust and is one of 11 taking place across the area to remember loved ones who have died.

A spokesperson said: "The services are held in late winter when the snowdrops first appear, reminding us that the hope and warmth of spring are not far away."

The trust asks for a donation of £10 to cover costs and the donation is acknowledged by a commemorative card.

West Dorset postcard

A POSTCARD from West Dorset" is the title of a talk being given by the West Dorset Countryside Manager of the National Trust at the Woodmead Hall tomorrow (Thursday) at 2.30 pm.

In a late change to their published programme, the Friends of Lyme Regis Museum have persuaded Robert Rhodes to talk about the day to day realities of looking after 20 sites in this Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, including the Golden Cap Estate and the homes of Thomas Hardy and T. E. Lawrence.

Admission is £2 for members, £3 for visitors, including raffle and refreshments.

LYME MEDICAL CENTRE: Doctor issues statement

AMID concerns being expressed about the future of the Lyme Regis Medical Centre following a recent High Court ruling over the ownership of the building, a statement has been issued by Dr Andrew Ll-welyn through London solicitors McClure Naismith.

The statement reads: "It has become apparent to me that there are a number of misunderstandings circulating with regard to the recent court proceedings involving Lyme Regis Medical Centre.

"The proceedings were begun by Dr Conway and Mrs Robinson as Executor of the estate of her late husband, Dr Barry Robinson.

"Prior to his death Dr Robinson, Dr Slater and I held the Medical Centre on trust for beneficiaries including the League of Friends of Lyme Regis and District Health Care Services and ourselves.

"Following Dr Robinson's death the position remained exactly the same save that Dr Slater and I were the remaining trustees and Dr Robinson's Estate became a beneficiary in his place.

"In the proceedings Dr Conway and Mrs Robinson asserted in simple terms that we had given up all our rights in the Medical Centre following the dissolution in 1999 of the original Lyme Practice partnership with Dr Robinson.

"As a result they claimed that Dr Slater and I were obliged to make a gratuitous transfer of the Medical Centre to them. We denied this.

"However, as we wished if at all possible to avoid court proceedings, we made an offer which the trial

Judge regarded as a solid basis for negotiation which, had it not been rejected by Dr Conway and Mrs Robinson, should have led to a settlement.

"At the end of the trial the Judge rejected all of Dr Conway and Mrs Robinson's claims.

"In consequence Dr Slater and I continue to hold the Medical Centre in trust for the beneficiaries including Dr Robinson's Estate.

"The judgment provides that as beneficiaries we are entitled amongst other things to our share of rent received from and compensation for the use and occupation of the Medical Centre since the dissolution of the original partnership in 1999.

"In addition, we are entitled to our legal costs of the proceedings.

"As trustees we have obligations in relation to the future of the Medical Centre and it is for that reason that we are currently in discussions with the Dorset PCT and Dr Conway.

"For the avoidance of any doubt, it is our desire that whatever medical services the Dorset PCT (or whoever inherits its functions under the forthcoming NHS reorganisation) considers appropriate should continue to be provided from the Medical Centre for the benefit of the local community.

"For further information please contact Jim Mackie, Partner in the London office of McClure Naismith LLP on 0207 929 3770."

Council to be more open on spending

A NEW drive to improve openness and transparency across the public sector means Dorset County Council will now be publishing details of all spending above £500.

The details will now be available for anyone to see, being published on the council's website.

The council has put spending above £500 for December 2010 online, and will continue to update its website every month. The list includes items like transport, IT, building and construction costs.

The aim is to encourage more public scrutiny of council spending.

Dorset County Council's cabinet member for Corporate Resources, Spencer Flower said: "Dorset has a strong track record of good financial management and delivering efficient, value for money services.

"We are committed to being as open and transparent as possible on how we are spending taxpayers' money. We are always looking at ways to do things smarter and better to provide value for money for our residents and shining a spotlight on our spending is part of doing just that.

"Anyone who is spending the public's money should be able to account for it – so we are pleased to be able to make this information available online.

"The council has always published our accounts but this will make it easier for people to see invoices we pay out which are more than £500."

You can find the information at www.dorsetforyou.com/open data

For each payment the website shows:

- The name of the council's supplier;
- The amount they were paid;
- A brief description of the service or goods provided (e.g. printing, accommodation, library books).

Think before you throw

DOES your lampshade no longer match your furniture? Do you have a suit which no longer fits or toys your children don't play with?

Dorset Councils are calling for residents to reuse their unwanted cast-offs by giving them to friends, relatives, charity shops or local furniture reuse organisations instead of throwing them away.

A new campaign promoting the benefits of donating not dumping unwanted yet good quality items launches today.

A series of 'choose to reuse' roadshows are taking place across the county encouraging people to consider how things they may view as rubbish could be put to better use by others.

Robert Gould, Dorset County Council's cabinet member for environment, said: "We're encouraging local people to think about the many ways their unwanted items can be used again, either by themselves or by someone else in the community.

"Finding a new home or use for things requires minimal effort and makes a real difference to the environment.

"It's all about preventing good condition items from needlessly ending up in landfill sites. It costs the Dorset taxpayer a considerable amount of money for every tonne of waste landfilled when it's free to donate to charity shops or furniture reuse centres.

"By raising awareness of the fantastic work these organisations do we hope people will choose to reuse when they're next having a clear out.

"Not only will they be supporting the local community and economy, they'll also be helping to raise money for great causes while reducing their carbon footprint as well."

Recycling officers will be on hand to talk to people about reuse at home and in the local community. Roadshow visitors will also be invited to take part in a short quiz designed to highlight different ways to give items a second lease of life.

Residents can start today with these three top reuse tips:

1 - Give unwanted items away: Pass items you no longer want to friends, relatives, charity shops or furniture reuse centres, or take them to a Give or Take Day - see www.dorsetforyou.com/recyclingevents

You could also join free reuse networks such as Freecycle, where you can advertise things you no longer want and people contact you if they want them.

2 - Get creative: Make them into something else that would be useful. Look through our reuse directory for lots of ideas - www.dorsetforyou.com/reusedirectory

3 - Ditch disposables: Consider buying long lasting products rather than disposables (e.g. washable nappies, rechargeable batteries).

■ Roadshows will be taking place at the following venues:

● February 9th - South Street, Dorchester, 10am to 2pm

● February 16th - Bond Street, Weymouth, 10am to 2pm

For more information on reuse see www.dorsetforyou.com/choosetoreuse

Over 500 attend Philippa's funeral

MORE than 500 people attended the funeral and celebration of life for 27-year-old Philippa Corbin, the River Cottage chef who died in tragic circumstances at her parents' home at Rocombe, near Uplyme.

The service was held at the Church of St Peter and St Paul in Uplyme and two marquees had to be erected in the grounds of the nearby primary school to accommodate the overflow of mourners.

Among the mourners were Philippa's boss, celebrity chef Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall, and many of her work colleagues from River Cottage and Woodroffe School friends.

The service was conducted by the Reverend Gavin Tyte with prayers by the former Rector, the Reverend Jeremy White.

The service featured two hymns - "Dear Lord and Father of mankind" and "Morning has broken" and the song, "We are sailing".

Family reading

A reading was given by Richard Spurgeon, Philippa's godfather and cousin, and a tribute paid by family friend Adrian Pearson. A solo, "You can close your eyes" by James Taylor, was sung by Jessamy Upton, accompanied by Steve Wilson.

Friends Louisa Pearson and Ian Purchase also contributed to the tributes and her parents, Pam and Hugh Corbin, and sister Maddy gave a family reading.

After the service the mourners were asked to take refreshments at the Uplyme Village Hall.

Philippa, also known as "Philly" and "Pip" was a hugely popular young woman in the Axminster and Lyme Regis area and was considered to be a vital part of Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall's River Cottage team.

Mr Fearnley-Whittingstall paid the following tribute to Philippa: "Everybody at River Cottage loved working with Pip - she was a very bright spark with a real passion for locally produced, ethical, artisan food.

"Her knowledge and talent were respected not only by her colleagues here, but, through her work at our festivals and with the Slow Food movement, by the whole West Country food community.

"She will be greatly missed by us all. Our special thoughts and prayers are with her parents, Hugh and Pam, her sister Maddy and her partner Owen."

A colleague at River Cottage, where she had been the deputy manager of the canteen, said: "Pip was a longstanding and much cherished employee and colleague."

New mine hosts at the Royal Oak

THE ROYAL Oak in Charmouth has welcomed new landlords who have just arrived in the village from a pub with the same name.

Christine Newman is the former landlady of the Royal Oak in Drimpton. She has taken the reins of the Charmouth Royal Oak with her partner Pete Studley, a former regular and barman at her last pub.

The move to Charmouth is the first joint venture for the couple, who replace former landlords Richard and Sue Grundy who had a short spell in the village after arriving in Spring last year.

Dream come true

Mr Studley said that running the pub was a dream come true. "I was laid off in June last year and I decided to have a change and I'd always wanted to run a pub and this was a great opportunity to do that. I like meeting people, providing a service and providing entertainment," said Mr Studley.

"The response has been absolutely fantastic, everybody has been very friendly, we've had a lot of people in and long may it continue.

"Everyone is welcome to come in and say hello. Hopefully they'll have a good experience and come back again."

Christine Newman has been in the pub industry for most of her life. Having previously run pubs in London, the Drimpton Royal Oak was her first pub in West Dorset. She said: "I like being here in Charmouth because it's more of a little town with all the shops and of course we've got the beach round the corner now. In Drimpton it was just a pub and the village, it was very rural. I'd like to hope we could be here for a little while to come."

The couple plan to soon run live entertainment on a regular basis and offer a traditional pub menu. They are also keen to keep the

Another night of great

by Jackie Evans

WHEN you're sitting in the audience before a concert listening to the fire drill instructions, you don't really expect that you will have to follow them.

But that's exactly what happened on the second of three nights of Cabaret at the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis. Poor Polly Rodin was halfway through a very accomplished performance of Corinne Bailey-Rae's Like a Star when the audience all had to troop out to the tennis courts. After five minutes and a declared false alarm Polly was allowed to begin again – game girl.

Cabarets have been taking place at the Woodroffe for many years. When I asked producer Kathy Elliott how many years, she replied that it was more that she cared to remember. But she must enjoy it as a huge amount of work goes into each show, with auditions and rehearsals starting as far back as October. This year the producer was supported by three mentors who helped to shape and support the acts – Alex Dobson, Rhys Paterson and Georgia Robson – and a great job they did too. This was an entertaining and enjoyable evening with a range of talent from all year groups – some old hands and some ingénues.

The Jazz Band started proceedings with three toe-tapping pieces, Peanut Vendor, Green Onions and Birdland. The band plays really well under the musical direction of Jon Cul-limore with several outstanding solos. My one small criticism would be that although they are young and concentrating on their music I would like to see a little more of the fun and enjoyment that they must have conveyed to the audience.

The first half of the evening featured many of the younger performers. Diva in the making Mia

Rose sang Valerie, a very laid back Nathan Porter accompanied himself on the guitar with Breakeven by the Script and Chloe Brown and Sebastian Merrett performed a dance comedy. It was a sort of exercise routine to music and I have no idea why it was funny, but it was.

Ellie Kirtley, Naomi Aves, Phoebe Townsend and Roisin Linnet gave a very confident and attractive performance of Sarah Bareilles Love Song and then producer Kathy Elliott took to the stage accompanied by Alex Dobson on the guitar. She chose to sing Stevie Nicks' Landslide and it suited her clear, pure voice very well.

Connor Jones, more used to the rugby field than entertaining, played a moving and moody piano solo called River Flows in You, which was his own composition and Jamie Jeffery and Taelor Hamblett-Weaving created some humorous but clever street dance. I think Yaz Murfin will be back on the stage again during her time at Woodroffe as the audience was swept away by her mature rendition of Leona Lewis' Footprints in the Sand.

entertainment at Woodroffe

Talented, seasoned performer Amy Street was up next with the Diva's Lament from Spamalat, aided and abetted by Laura Taylor who stole a few moments of her own and the first half was rounded off by the rousing Samba band – a brilliant and thunderous performance made all the more effective by the dark lighting and spooky white masks.

It occurred to me during the interval what a great atmosphere there is at this school. There were, of course, a lot of in-jokes about students and members of staff between compere Alan Brown and his four assistants, but the audience was really supportive and encouraging of the young performers. Last year the cabaret raised over £3,000, which not only bought two guitars and new amps for the music department but was also shared with three charities of the students' choosing – Sightsavers; Smile Train and the Alzheimer's Society.

The sixth form band kicked off the second half, fronted by the super-cool and super-confident Luke Street. The balance on the amps wasn't quite right for the first half of their performance of Top Loader's Dancing in the Moonlight as it was impossible to hear his voice but he made the audience laugh with some truly terrible jokes and was ably supported by Dan Blake, Jon Pogson, Dom Kirtley, Matt Hartnell and Matt Hall.

After Polly Rodin's girl interrupted performance, Rob James showed brilliant versatility with his own folk-inspired guitar and vocal solo, and then fronting the Year 11 band, in the absence of Callum Thom, with a complete change in style and Green Day's Hitchin a Ride. Ellie Hatcher, Jake Perrett and Joe Bailey made up the other members of the band.

James Dean has an amazing voice and his take on Stevie Wonder's Always was as cool as Robert Palmer with the obligatory black dressed and red lipped girls in support, in the shape of Cat Butler and Celia Cruwys-Finnigan. The comedy sketch by Joe Youens, Luke Street, Peter Hodges, Rhys Paterson and Rikki Sargent was extremely clever and well thought out. The audience was then captivated by the voice of Ellie Harris singing The Writer, accompanied by her brother Ollie.

Dance group Amy, Fran, Jenny, Lucy, Polly and Rachael put their hearts, souls and some good moves into their routine and one of the highlights of the evening was the diverse acapela performance of Alex, Cat, Celia, Georgia, Luke and Rhys.

Ian Wood's always consummate performance of Bob Dylan's Don't Think Twice was accompanied by Kevin Butt, which brought us to the finale of the night. The sixth form dance – a compilation of Beyonce's All the Single Ladies, OutKast's Hey Ya and The Jam's Town Like Malice was a real fun, upbeat and well choreographed way to end a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

Letters to the Editor

Support for museum plans

■ IN the View From Lyme Regis of January 19, in a report on the Town Council's debate on the proposed extension for the Museum, I was quoted as saying the possibility of extending the council offices was just "castles in the air. It's never going to happen".

I now discover that Museum Trustees and supporters were disappointed with my statement, thinking I was violently opposed to their own extension plans.

On the contrary, I was referring to the old and, to my mind, rather grandiose

Town Council plans dated 2000 (which incidentally I do not recall as having come to councillors for debate at any time since I was elected to Council in 1999).

Ratepayers may like to see these plans which can be seen in the Council Offices. They show a large two-storey extension linking the rear of Guildhall Cottage to the Guildhall, to provide a new Mayor's Chamber with panoramic views over the bay, a bar area and kitchen, with spacious conveniences and lobby on the ground floor, devised at a time when the council was run from a cramped office space under the Guildhall, now the Theatre Office.

It was these plans which one senior councillor wished colleagues to revisit during the debate before the raised area at the rear of the Guildhall Cottage was committed to become the councillors' new car park after construction of the Museum extension. My view, spoken at the Strategy meeting of January 12th, was that it was this inappropriate scheme that was "a red herring" and "castles in the air" and not the current Museum extension plan.

Most of the general public would, quite understandably, not have known of the 2000 plans and I can quite see how the misunderstanding occurred.

I totally support now, as I did at the first presentation a few years' ago, the museum's innovative extension plan which I consider to be more worthy than the provision of extra council parking places or more reception rooms for the Town Council.

Thanks for voting for me

■ I WOULD like to thank the readers of View From for going to the trouble of voting for me as their Citizen of The Year.

I feel very humble that the people of Lyme Regis felt that I was, in my 91st year, worthy of such support and for even being nominated in the first instance.

The pride I feel when leading the parade for Remembrance Sunday is beyond words and I am extremely fortunate to be in relatively good health. I am sure that if it wasn't for my failing eyesight I would carry on a great deal longer.

Thank you the people of Lyme Regis and congratulations to Marcus Dixon, a very worthy winner.

■ SANTA'S LITTLE HELPER – Neville Causley needs somewhere to store Santa's sleigh and reindeer

Santa's sleigh needs a new home

A CHARITY fundraiser is desperately searching for a new home for Santa and his reindeer to help keep a Lyme Regis tradition going.

Landlord of the Hunter's Lodge pub, Neville Causley, is temporarily storing Santa's sleigh, and his life-size reindeer, but the conditions are too damp for this to be a permanent solution.

The sleigh is used each Christmas when Santa takes a tour of Lyme Regis' streets visiting children and collecting donations for charity. The tradition has been running for almost a decade and last year raised £613 for charity.

The sleigh had previously been stored at a nearby farm but with that no longer an option Mr Causley is desperately trying to find a new dry storage area.

The sleigh is roughly 8ft by 4ft wide. If you can help then contact Mr Causley on 01297 33286.

Artists start year in postive mood

LYME Regis ArtsFest is approaching 2011 in a positive spirit, intending to become self sufficient financially and seek support only for special projects.

The past format has proved successful for the arts community, local businesses and participants and will be used again, but with some innovations. A strong artists' group continues to provide the backbone to this annual event, with events and workshops built around exhibitions and open studios and highlighted by the town trail.

"It is always important to retain a creative response to context and local conditions," says director Sally Holman. "We are supporting Maritime Lyme in 2011 and our theme will be simply 'Maritime'. This gives plenty of scope for artistic interpretation."

"Last year literary and performance elements featured, we had the Slovenian concert, the Museum and Aquarium added to our range of locations where people were able to join us, and we were virtually 'homegrown'.

"The response was good, visitor numbers were very slightly down but financial benefits to groups and individuals as well as businesses were slightly up on the previous year. Building on this, but without the need to spend hours filling in forms which are less likely to result in grants, we are looking for increased participation from local artists, and open to offers from all who are involved across that arts to contribute workshops and events.

"New venues should be available to us and we have moved the date slightly (September 17-25) to accommodate other commitments at the Baptist Church hall, the home of our main selling exhibition. We intend to have top-quality publicity as usual, a wide circulation of brochures supported by our excellent website."

The festival's annual meeting will be held at the Guildhall on Monday, february 28th (7pm) to which all are invited. .

Bill Bragg supports village protesters

SOCIAL activist and popular entertainer Billy Bragg joined protesters in Charnmouth on Saturday in another demonstration against the possible closure of the village library.

Charnmouth library is one of 20 out of a total of 34 libraries in the county earmarked for closure and it being one of the smallest in the county villagers have a real fight on their hands.

The Friends of Charnmouth Library organised Saturday's protest, the third to be held, to coincide with the national "Save Our Libraries Day".

They encouraged as many villagers as possible to turn up at the library in The Street to take out as many books as they could. Dozens crowded into the little building, leaving the shelves looking very bare by the end of the morning.

Billy Bragg lives just down at the coast at Burton Bradstock where a long running battle has been going on to save the village library.

He willingly signed autographs for local children, addressed the gathering about the importance of getting behind the campaign and sang a few protest songs, including the "Battle for Barking" which he penned during last year's general election for the fight to prevent the British National Party taking over Barking Town Hall in Essex.

In a rousing speech, Bragg linked the library protest with the American civil rights movement of the 1950s and with the current student protests over tuition fees.

Hazel Robinson, chairman of the Friends of Charnmouth Library, said they were "very pleased" with the number of people who supported the protest and particularly the new members who signed up to the library.

Mrs Robinson added: "We were delighted that Billy Bragg came along and talked so passionately about the cuts."

■ MAKING A POINT: Billy Bragg entertains the Charnmouth library supporters with some of his protest songs

■ PILING THEM HIGH: BILLY Bragg, complete with library card, reinforcing the message of how important libraries are to small communities such as Charnmouth

■ CROWDED: Dozens of villagers crowded into the library to demonstrate their support

Growing

the big conversation

Understanding finance for growth

Today we are launching a major drive to boost high growth businesses across the region. Run in collaboration with View From Bridport & West Bay, View From Beaminster, View From Dorchester, View From Weymouth & Portland and View From Lyme Regis & Charmouth the 'Growing Business – the Big Conversation' campaign is being led by Business Link, Solutions for Business and GWE Business West, with funding from the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF).

As part of this campaign, here we focus on a new initiative that has been launched to give Dorset businesses a greater understanding of the finance options open to them – and to help them succeed in proposals to funders.

The new programme, entitled 'Understanding Finance for Business' offers businesses a minimum of 12 hours support with an experienced finance coach.

Neil Higginson, programme manager ERDF projects, is leading the initiative. He said: "It is a cliché, but cash is the lifeblood of a business – and when businesses enjoy strong growth, their requirement for funding can increase significantly.

"Funding decisions made during these periods can have a fundamental impact on the long-term development of the business – our new service is designed to help entrepreneurs make the right choices."

Through discussions with a range of lenders, Neil offers the following advice:

- The product or service's value proposition has to be clearly articulated - and it must be compelling. Don't use jargon or technical language in finance proposals.
- Funders want to see evidence that the market is interested – demonstrate customer feedback that proves serious interest.
- Have clarity in your cash projections – clearly demonstrate that you will be able to meet repayments.

- Don't be complacent or take your bank for granted. If you are never in touch except for the time when you need a considerable amount of money – don't be surprised if they say no!

Neil said: "The growth of the UK economy relies on our local business communities. We are launching the 'Big Conversation' to support local businesses by highlighting these new services and encouraging the online sharing of growth experiences, ideas, insights and tips."

The service is available for businesses which seek clarity of the finance and funding options available to support their growth. It comprises specialist workshops, tailored events and one-to-one business coaching.

Ian Girling, operations manager at Business Link in Dorset, said: "This new initiative will be a very welcome resource for local businesses. It will give them tailored and sound investment presentation capabilities, an understanding of all available options and potential exposure at investor forums."

■ BACK TO SCHOOL: Top chef Mark Hix keeps an eye of some of the budding foodies at Mrs Ethelston's Primary School in Uplyme

Top chef at Uplyme school

OAK class at Mrs Ethelston's CE Primary School in Uplyme enjoyed a morning with top chef Mark Hix tasting and identifying different foods and generally testing their taste buds.

Classmates Juliette and Issy said: "Mr Hix was great fun. We enjoyed a blindfold identification game where we had to use our touch and smell to identify different fruit and vegetables and then some jellies made from some unusual combinations of food including orange and chilli jelly which was actually quite nice!"

Acting Headteacher Mary-Anne Crafter commented, "We are very grateful to Mark and the "Chefs Adopt A School"" organisation for giving the children such a fun time and opening their eyes to the variety of foods that we are able to enjoy – including some rather interesting combinations.

"I never thought I would be saying that I enjoyed golden beetroot jelly!"

Rowathon raises £1,340 for RNLI

■ THE recent rowathon at the Lfeboat Station in Lyme Regis raised a total of £1,100.

This sum included the combined total from sponsorship raised by the rowers from the Gig Club, RNLI Crew and Guild members and passersby, the tombola, refreshments and donations on the day.

Together with £240 raised at St Michael's Primary School £240, (£150 raised on SOS Day and £90 at the Christmas Carol Service), a total of £1,340 will be going to the RNLI in order to "Save lives at sea".

Lyme Valley Scouts get insight into police cells

THE 1st Lym Valley Scout Troop visited Bridport Police Station last week as part of their Community Challenge Badge.

They were shown around by PCSO Pete Smith, PCSO John Burton and Sergeant Steve Hughes.

The Scouts had an interesting and fun time looking in the police cells in the custody suite and being locked in.

They experienced what it would be like locked in a police van and looked at the equipment the police used in their duties.

One of their leaders commented: "They asked some good questions and had an enjoyable time. And we didn't leave any of them behind!"

Around the world in 80 days

ALTHOUGH many of the Hollywood stars listed in the programme as taking part in this evening of refreshment and entertainment that was Around the World in 80 Days at the Marine Theatre, did not in fact attend, their absence for the most part, passed unnoticed during what was an evening of amusement.

Words by Keith Jenkin Photos by Peter Wiles

The script, brilliantly devised by Jenny Wiles, demanded much of the cast, especially in the area of timing, and they responded well indeed as they took us through the journey made by Jules Verne's Phileas Fogg.

Our hero managed to get to Italy before a halt was called, thus allowing the audience to partake in a ploughman's supper. A second leg followed prior to the dessert, after which came the finale. The show included much to catch the eye. There was a quite formidable pair of plus fours, a one-winged pigeon, hot air balloons of various sizes (where did they come from?) trains in which I would not have cared to travel, and boats in which I certainly would not have put to sea.

point the way, very considerable audience participation, some tearing up of the script, and a very great deal of laughter. Oh yes, there was a song too, "New York, New York", performed by the sleuth, plus fours and all, complete with hat and cane.

"Around the World in Eighty Days" formed the basis of a great fun evening and, although this did not overtly appear to be the case, much time and effort must have been given by those involved, not least in the area of research, bearing in mind that the action took place during the late 19th century.

I was not able to attend Jenny Wiles' previous offering - The Hound of the Baskervilles - I will certainly make a point of attending any future one (and will probably be joined in this by Messrs Brosnan, Niven and Chan).

A great fun evening. Together with most others in the capacity audience, I laughed a lot.

Lyme IS up for library fight!

ON last week's front page I put up the following headline: "Is Lyme up for saving the library? It wasn't popular."

I took a real kicking from one or two readers who condemned the negativity of my coverage of the public meeting held to co-ordinate opposition to the possible closure of the Lyme library as part of Dorset County Council cuts.

I had intended to write the following headline "Apathy over fight to save library" but I thought that was a step too far and unfair to those, like Wendy Davies, who had worked so hard to publicise the meeting.

I also wrote in this column last week that I left the meeting with the hump because I could not hear most of the dialogue due to the lay-out of the seating.

I can't blame Wendy for that as she did not expect such a good turn-out - over 100 residents attended.

Not her fault either than I have suffered from tinnitus for over 20 years and now have only 20 per cent hearing in one ear. That's why I like to sit in front of an audience when covering events so people are talking at me rather than away from me.

This was picked up by one of my email critics who succinctly suggested that if I can no longer hear the discussions at public meetings, was it not time I considered retiring?

I posed the question of whether Lyme was up for saving its library because after a lively debate to which many contributed only two people put their names forward to serve on an action group - Rikey Austin and Lucy Campbell, both of

by Philip Evans

whom might well think they are busy enough on other community initiatives.

I also noted that there seemed to be no real enthusiasm by those present to turn up at the library on Saturday morning which had been dedicated as a quasi-national "Save Our Libraries" day.

But I wasn't the only person who was less than impressed with the enthusiasm of the protesters at the public meeting. Those who organised the gathering were also bit non-plussed by the reaction.

However, I am pleased to report that others did come forward during the week to sit on an action group and there was a wonderful turn-out at the library on Saturday morning, somewhere near 300 people, making it one of the biggest protest gatherings in recent times, certainly more than the Three Cups marches.

So perhaps the "Is Lyme up for saving the library?" headline might have done some good after all...

Jackie covered the Lyme protest as I popped over to Charmouth where the villagers turned out in force to demonstrate their support for one of the smallest libraries in Dorset by taking out dozens of books.

Even social activist and entertainer Billy Bragg, who lives at Burton Bradstock, turned up with his guitar to give his support to the protesting villagers.

"The things I do for international socialism," he quipped as he signed autographs for the kids.

We are told that there is a good chance that the Lyme library will be saved (although not confirmed) and if that proves to be the case Charmouth may well face a bigger battle because they will still have a library outlet within three miles.

Parishioners in Charmouth already contribute - through the parish council supplementing staff costs at their library to the tune of £4,200 a year - so even more voluntary effort may be necessary to stave off total closure.

As for Lyme, it seems to me that the county has to give more serious consideration to the plan put forward by Lyme Regis Development Trust to re-house the library at St Michael's Business Centre and put the Silver Street site to better use.

This could result in an improved service, with longer opening hours, rather than a lesser one

I think there is much credence also in the argument put forward by Wendy Davies and others that the pain should be spread across all 34 libraries in Dorset and not just the 20 earmarked for closure.

Oh and by the way, sorry to disappoint, but I have no plans to retire quite yet - at least not until I go totally mutt and jeff!

Loss of jazz festival a real blow to the town

REAL disappointment in Lyme over the news that there will be no jazz festival in the resort this year.

The festival has become one of Lyme's most popular attractions over the last 20 years, providing a welcome trading boost in the early summer.

The Lyme festival had also become a firm favourite with jazz aficionados, many of whom returned to the town year after year to savour the special intimate atmosphere created by the visiting musicians.

Highlight of the festival has always been the Saturday morning umbrella parade, bringing a little bit of New Orleans to the Pearl of Dorset. Indeed, the staging of the parade with town crier Phil Street striding out in front to the strains of Gerry Brown's Mission Hall Jazz Band has become one of the iconic summer sights of Lyme.

There is a real fear among jazz lovers in the town that missing one festival could mean the event will never return as it will lose its place in the jazz calendar.

If that is the case, it will be a real blow to the town.

■ ANOTHER famous face has extolled the virtues of Lyme Regis as a visitor destination in a national newspaper.

Saturday's Daily Mail asked best selling author Colin Dexter, who wrote the Inspector Morse books, to name his favourite destination.

Dexter replied: "It's always been Lyme Regis - I love the sight of the sea. The thought of sitting by the seaside on a sunny day with a pint of beer always gives me a lift."

"It's the one place in the world I never tire of visiting. Lyme Regis is a charming little seaside town on the Dorset coast - 'Hardy Country' - where all sorts of dinosaur remains have been found. Not that I've ever seen any."

quality service".

Paul is now launching a NEW London and Home Counties delivery service – offering to deliver items by 9am the next morning if collected by 7pm.

Helping to deliver your success

• Austen Whetham & Guest Solicitors

AWG-Law "points" the way ahead. Bridport solicitors Austen Whetham & Guest are once again breaking new ground and sponsoring local Point to Point rider Alice Mills during the 2011 season, keeping the AWG-Law flag flying all over the Westcountry.

Alice (24) who works for Anthony Honeyball at Seaborough is already a highly regarded jockey with a career total of fourteen winners so far, and this season she has been appointed as prestigious local trainer, Richard Barber's Lady rider. Alice has already notched up a second and two fourth places in the last 10 days wearing the AWG-Law banner, and is hoping for much more success to come.

"Sponsorship with AWG enables me to continue riding as an amateur in point to points because I do not earn any money from it but still need to purchase all my own equipment which proves very expensive. Now I can focus on progressing my career as a jockey without the worry of financing".

For over 100 years AWG has been providing high quality legal advice from their Bridport offices, and now work both locally and nationally across London, the South and South West England, thanks to the development of an innovative practice where some of their solicitors are self employed consultants who can be based anywhere in Britain, and enables AWG to offer accessible, flexible and expert legal advice which is completely responsive to their clients' needs.

AWG partner Elizabeth West said, "We are looking forward to a successful season supporting a young aspiring local sports-woman and showing the AWG brand to race goers throughout the West Country. We want to make sure that Alice, AWG and their clients are always in the winner's enclosure".

♥ Love Chocolate

Melt your partner's heart this Valentines with Love Chocolate

New to The Street in Charmouth is Love Chocolate, a little shop which will make all chocolate lovers' mouths water!

Owners husband and wife team Sue and Martin Harvey opened the shop as they have a real passion for good quality chocolate. Before moving to Charmouth they ran a deli where they sold homemade chocolate made by fully trained Martin.

Now they are settled in Charmouth and run another business, Love Chocolate is their hobby and the shop is filled with beautiful quality chocolates of all flavours and sizes which they import from a family run chocolate house in Belgium. One day they are hoping to again sell their own homemade chocolates too.

Sue would really like the shop to feel like a 'chocolate florist', where customers come in and either treat themselves, or treat a loved one, family member or friend to a gift, which can be personalised and wrapped to how you would like it. Gift prices range from £3 to £40

With a large range of chocolates and truffles to choose from there is also a counter filled with different flavoured fudges made in Cornwall, Choc-o-laite sticks for hot drinks, Jelly Belly's, Kendal Mint cake, Traditional Liquorice and chocolate animals and dinosaurs – something for all ages.

With beautiful gift boxes, cocktail glasses, vases, mugs & trinket boxes which can be filled with whichever chocolates take your fancy, these all make lovely Valentine's gifts.

So why not pop in and see what delicious and unique goodies they have today.

The story of St. Valentine

In 270 A.D., marriage had been outlawed by the emperor of Rome, Claudius II. Claudius issued this decree because he thought that married men made bad soldiers since they were reluctant to be torn away from their families in the case of war. Claudius had also outlawed Christianity in this time period because he wished to be praised as the one supreme god, the Emperor of Rome. Valentine was the bishop of Interamna during this period of oppression. Valentine thought that the decrees of Rome were wrong. He believed that people should be free to love God and to marry. Valentine invited the young couples of the area to come to him. When they came, Valentine secretly performed services of matrimony and united the couples.

Valentine was eventually caught and was brought before the emperor. The emperor saw that Valentine had conviction and drive that was unsurpassed among his men. Claudius tried and tried to persuade Valentine to leave Christianity, serve the Roman empire and the Roman gods. In exchange, Claudius would pardon him and make him one of his allies. St. Valentine held to his faith and did not renounce Christ. Because of this, the emperor sentenced him to a three-part execution. First, Valentine would be beaten, then stoned, and then finally, decapitated. Valentine died on February 14th, 270 A.D.

While in prison, waiting for his sentence to be carried out, Valentine fell in love with the jailer's daughter, the blind Asterius. During the course of Valentine's prison stay, a miracle occurred and Asterius regained her sight. Valentine sent her a final farewell note. He signed his last note, "From Your Valentine." Even today, this message remains as the motto for our Valentine's Day celebrations.

♥ Lavender Blue Florist

Local florist Lavender Blue gears up for Valentine's Day

Lavender Blue in Bridport has launched a special selection of romantic floral designs that will make sure your Valentine's Day goes exactly as planned.

Everybody loves to receive a special delivery of flowers around Valentine's Day, which is why the shop, which can be found on Lilliput Lane, has created a stunning selection of hand-crafted gifts. Items range from timeless classics such as a dozen red roses or a single red rose in a gift box, through to more contemporary designs containing alternatives to roses such as tulips, amaryllis or gerberas. What's more, as fully trained professional florists, they'll even make up a bespoke design exactly to your requirements, should you have something special in mind.

Plants haven't been forgotten either, with a large choice of romantic offerings all beautifully packaged. Champagne, cuddly toys, chocolates and balloons are available too, helping you to make this Valentine's Day one to remember.

All of Lavender Blue's Valentine's flowers and plants are hand crafted by skilled florists using the freshest flowers and are ready for takeaway from the shop or to be personally delivered on the date of your choice, with no nasty courier van or unsightly cardboard box to be seen anywhere, as you get with some internet or supermarket flowers.

Commenting on this year's Valentine's Day, which falls on a Monday, the shop's owner Sue Clark said: "Nothing beats the thrill of receiving a hand-delivered gorgeous bouquet in front of all your workmates.

Sue adds: "We love Valentine's Day – nothing beats the look on the recipient's face when they receive their flowers and they'll love you for it too – simply give us a call and let us make sure Valentine's Day 2011 is a truly memorable one for you!"

What's more, Lavender Blue, can also arrange for you to send flowers to loved ones who you can't be with on Valentine's Day, wherever they are in the UK or further afield, via the Interflora network of professional florists.

To find out more about Lavender Blue's Valentine's gifts, call 01308 459145 or log on to www.lavenderblueflowers.com.

Unique choice of gowns and accessories with a personal and professional service

Prima Moda Brides

PRIMA Moda Brides of Ilminster, owned by Jean Pas, is renowned for its choice of unique gowns with the latest designs coming in on a regular basis.

Jean and her team take time to listen to clientele and offer help and support to find the gown, which is right – allowing each bride to obtain her individual look.

Jean explains: "We encourage brides and the bridal party to try different styles with their venue in mind, i.e. beach weddings may require a different style and fabric from a traditional ceremony. This can be a fun experience, especially as we can provide the entire stunning picture by offering to dress the hair when choosing a bespoke tiara and adding and veil and jewellery, which delights our clients."

The shop provides a generous amount of space for the gowns to be seen at their full advantage, when being chosen. It has a natural light area, which is important to consider when choosing fabrics and colour to suit you. Also the large mirrored changing rooms are a great advantage to every bride.

The window displays are changed regularly as Jean understands how important window-shopping is and she has had many complimentary comments on how beautifully her stunning gowns are displayed.

Prima Moda Brides works on a mainly appointment system but all brides are made to feel welcome and special at any time. Every bride would find Prima Moda well worth the visit to find the perfect dress for the perfect day and Jean and the team look forward to seeing you.

The Electric Palace

The beautiful Electric Palace in Bridport has become a very popular choice for weddings with its large auditorium and original 1920s décor. The old cinema is full of character and offers something completely different to other more traditional venues. As well as local weddings, many Brides and Grooms are travelling from London, Surrey and beyond for the opportunity to have a wedding in such an unusual setting.

Gabby Rabbitts of the Electric Palace told us that 'I think couples are starting to look for something different for their wedding. You see so many photographs of weddings in exactly the same location on exactly the same spot. The Palace provides a completely unique setting that you and your guests will always remember.'

She went on to say that 'although the building is a completely unique experience, the layout can stay traditional if preferred with welcome canapés and wine in our front reception and dining and dancing in the main auditorium.'

The Electric Palace works with an interior stylist who dresses the room to your taste as well as a superb local caterer who makes everything including a range of homemade breads.

With the highly acclaimed title of being 'the most exciting entertainment venue in the South' the Electric Palace has excellent contacts in the entertainment industry and is happy to recommend live music and DJs to ensure that you and your guests have the best reception possible.

Bennetts Water Gardens

This unique location just 2 miles from Weymouth harbour is available for 'exclusive' hire. Civil Ceremonies can take place outside in the Imperial Gazebo that stands within the heart of the gardens, overlooking the Monet style Japanese bridge and water lily ponds. The bride can make the most stunning entrance magically appearing from the bridge, her dress reflecting in the water, then walking through a six meter willow arch and into the gazebo for the ceremony. After the ceremony reception drinks can be served on the terrace.

Bennetts Water Gardens also specialise in Marquee receptions. The bride and groom can choose anything from a hog roast to a 5 course banquet and continue celebrations into the evening with a disco or band while the floodlit gardens create a magical atmosphere. Alternatively a smaller reception can be held in Café Monet with its superb view over the lake.

Couples may choose to hold just the ceremony in the gardens or just the reception, but it is the perfect venue to spend your entire wedding day.

15 Ways to Make Your Wedding a Unique and Truly Memorable Event

If you've been to one wedding, you've seen it all. From the flowers and the candles to the dress and the music, the typical wedding can be as predictable and generic as your Uncle Leo's dance moves. For your wedding to stand out, you need to involve your guests in the sentiment and process of the day. It's not the cake or the great food that will be remembered, but all the little details that will make your wedding as unique and memorable for your guests as it will be for you. These 25 ideas on how to personalize your day will make it the event that will be talked about for years to come:

1. Write a welcome note for your out-of-town guests on postcards from the city your wedding takes place. It's a nice personal touch that shows tremendous thought as well as a keepsake that can be saved with photos of the wedding.
2. Include an "About the Wedding Party" section in your programs or on the reception tables for your guests to learn more about the members of your bridal party. Not everyone will know that you and your Maid of Honor have been best friends since preschool.
3. Hang your dress on a pretty silk coat hanger the day of your wedding. People will be taking photographs of the dress before you put it on and you'd like to avoid having it on an old wire coat hanger.
4. Send your invitations to Loveville, Maryland first -- they've developed special wedding postmarks that add a nice "love" touch to your envelope. Call 301-475-5243 for details.
5. Invite the President, Pope, and the Queen of England for a special wedding surprise. Be sure to send their invites out early.
6. If you're planning on taking pictures prior to the ceremony, clear everyone out of the ceremony site and have your groom at the end of the aisle. Walk down the aisle, so it's only the two of you. It's a very sweet and special moment that you can share... and the pictures of the tears in his eyes will be priceless.
7. Place tissues or personalized embroidered handkerchiefs in the rows where family will be seated for their "tears of joy".
8. Write a letter to your mom and dad and have it waiting for them at their seat during the ceremony. It could be about anything: a thank you, how you hope your marriage turns out like theirs, your gratitude everything they have done for you, etc. They will be so touched and honored that you took the time to arrange for this and you'll have them in tears before you begin to walk down the aisle!
9. Have each bridesmaid carry a bouquet made entirely of their favorite flower. Your bouquet will be a combination of all of their flowers.
10. Dress your flowergirl in a bright color rather than a replica of your dress so that the dress can be worn again. Remember that this wedding is about celebrating your love and inviting your family and friends to see a glimpse of who you are. Don't be afraid to do things a little differently... your guests will appreciate and remember your day all the more for it!

Lose weight quickly and safely with Lighter Life

Diane had always been heavy and by the time she had her two children she had had enough, she didn't want to be overweight any more and had simply tried and failed at every diet.

Diane decided to join the LighterLife Weight-Loss and Weight-Management programme and was astonished to find that in only five short months she dropped an incredible six dress sizes from a 22 to a size 10.

Through the use of nutritionally balanced soups, shakes and bars, Diane was able to lose weight quickly, safely and maintain that weight-loss. She was also able to discover some insight into the reason why she overate, at weekly group meetings run by LighterLife - because there's usually a bit more to it than simply 'eating too much'.

Since losing weight Diane exercises daily, doesn't feel tired anymore and her asthma has improved. She is beaming with confidence and can wear whatever she wants.

If you are thinking of losing weight or would like to find out more about the LighterLife programme why not contact your local Weight-Management Counsellor Celia Manville on 07515 699 801 or visit www.lighterlife.com/celiamanville

Get ready to blow away those winter blues

BRIDPORT'S very own Stompin' Dave brings a night of the highest quality blues to the Electric Palace on Thursday, February 17th. In these times of recession the blues of Michael Roach has never been more relevant. Playing songs born in the great depression of the 1930s they tell stories of hope in times of trouble.

Michael is originally from Washington DC, and founder of the European Blues Association. He is regarded as one of today's finest exponents of East Coast blues, a form of music made famous by Blind Willie McTell, Blind Boy Fuller, Reverend Gary Davis, Sonny Terry and Brownie McGhee.

As well as being an amazing singer and guitarist, with a passion for playing live, he is a respected historian. Michael has lectured for the Smithsonian Institute in the USA and Oxford University, he has also presented 'Deep Blue', a Radio 4 series on blues music, which all go towards his aim of bringing about a greater understanding of blues music and the Black experience.

Joining Michael on the night will be Bex Marshall. Bex can be best described as bringing to the stage an explosion of blue hot acoustic slide with a unique earthy melting pot of a voice. Bex Marshall's outstanding virtuoso guitar playing is a mixture of exposed blues and ragtime flails augmented by her stunning whiskey soaked vocals, and diverse, but always poignant writing.

She has picked up rave reviews from music magazines from LA to New Zealand, and has shared stages with various international artists including Bob Dylan, The Counting Crows, Billy Bragg, The Dubliners, Robert Plant, The Yardbirds, and Country Joe Macdonald to name a few. After three tours of the US Bex's Kitchen Table went to number 20 in the US Americana Music Association Chart.

Kicking off the night in the finest blues style will be Stompin' Dave himself, joined on stage by the award winning bluesman from The Producers, Dave Saunders. The recent release of their Country Blues CD harvested excellent reviews from Blues Matters, Maverick and Blues In Britain. They also earned a standing ovation at the Boogaloo Blues Festival on the Isle of Wight.

Stompin' Dave is really looking forward to putting on another show in the Electric Palace after very successful events last year and said: "The Blues is a music that reflects the troubles people are going through in hard times, and are as relevant today as they were in the 1930s. But they also are uplifting in the hands of truly gifted musicians. Michael Roach is one such musician, and being joined by Bex, Dave and myself will make a real night to remember.

"That the show takes place in the grand and historic surroundings of The Electric Palace, a venue that itself dates back to the 1920s, is ideally suited to bringing to life the blues music of the '30s and linking it with the modern blues of today."

Tickets for the February 17th gig are £10 in advance. They can be bought from Bridport TIC (01308) 424901 or direct from Dave via the website www.stompinstore.com

Great opportunity for Lyme Youth Theatre

THE Lyme Regis Youth Theatre does not often enjoy a profile commensurate with the good work that it does but now has a chance to do just that. It has been invited to take part in 'National Theatre Connections', a nationwide celebration of young theatre talent organised by the National Theatre, and will therefore have the opportunity to display its talents nationwide.

This project, sponsored by Bank of America and Merrill Lynch, represents a real opportunity for local talent and local groups to demonstrate their collective abilities, for the National Theatre has commissioned a group of talented young playwrights to produce scripts with which the young can identify. The Lyme Youth Theatre Company has chosen a play by Dorset writer Nell Leyshon and, having read the play myself, has chosen well I think.

The Beauty Manifesto, apart from questioning contemporary ideas of beauty, raises thoughts about conformity, peer pressure and rebellion, and will be staged at the Marine Theatre on the 6th, 9th, 10th, 12th and 13th of March. Thereafter the performance will be taken to the Bristol Old Vic, and performed on March the twenty ninth, together with one or two other productions.

Then, if they are selected, the doors of the National Theatre in London will open to them and the Lyme Regis local talent will have the chance to tread the boards in the capital. Exciting times indeed for the members of the Lyme Youth Theatre Company!

The dates of the production at the Marine are as follows:- Sunday March 6th at 5pm for preview, tickets £3.50. Wednesday 9th, Thursday 10th, 7.30pm tickets £5. Sunday 13th March 5pm., tickets £5. Box Office: Lyme Regis TIC, telephone 01297 442138.

Saturday 12th March Gala performance and Reception. Tickets £15. For tickets, telephone Polly Benfield 01297 446066.

New courses of family history planned

FAMILY History courses have been running in Bridport for the past ten years and a variety of courses are planned starting in February from beginners to advanced research, so there is something for everyone.

Over the years a group of very successful researchers have developed and new courses are always on offer in which internet access and a huge research library is available for students to access.

The tutor, Jane Ferentzi-Sheppard is organising a coach trip to London on Friday February 25th either to visit the National Archives at Kew or the 'Who do you think you are?' Family History Fair at Olympia. Cost is £24.00 and the coach will pick up in Weymouth 5.30am, Bridport 6.00am and Dorchester 6.30am. For more information contact Jane direct on 01308 425710.

Further details about courses can be collected from the Local History Centre, Gundry Lane, Bridport Library, The Book Shop, Bridport Tourist Information or from Jane on 01038 425710.

Photographing Maritime Lyme

PROFESSIONAL photographers Maisie Hill and Peter Wiles are getting together in March to offer a day workshop in photography. As part of Maritime Lyme 2011 the aim is to capture the many subjects that Lyme Regis offers such as the Cobb, the Harbour as well as the main beach and Monmouth beach.

The day, which is also a Lyme Regis ArtsFest event, will provide an opportunity for photographers to develop their skills supported by advice, suggestions and discussion with Maisie, Peter and the rest of the group.

Maisie commented "Lyme Regis is always an inspirational location for photography. The combination of the sea, the weather and the light means that it always has a different feel. I especially enjoy looking for the details of shape and form that others may overlook, as well as keeping a lookout for various activities that go on."

The day costs £20 and takes place on Saturday, March 19th, based at the RNLI Lifeboat Station. For information and bookings contact Maisie on 01297 443069, or Peter by emailing peter@lymescares.co.uk

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

IN case you need a reminder, next Sunday is St. Valentine's Day, so don't forget that card for your sweetheart. If you are really trying to impress then you might even be saying it with flowers or with a flowery love poem - like this one by the American artist Robert Sexton.

FOR NOW AND EVER

*There is no moment of my life
When you are not a part of me;
You hold my heart; you guard my soul;
You guide my dreams so tenderly.
And if my will might be done,
And all I long for could come true,
With perfect joy I would choose
To share eternity with you.*

This St. Valentine verse was submitted by Colyton reader, Richard Land.

LOVE ON THE COBB

*The couple met upon the Cobb
She was called Jen, his name was Rob
She'd been to swim, he'd been to fish
She was, he thought, a genuine dish.*

She'd had no love, was in a funk,

*But had she found her handsome hunk?
Just at that time a giant wave struck,
Were Rob and Jen just out of luck?*

*Would stormy waves destroy a love
So newly found, Oh Heavens above!
But no, bold Rob puts out a hand
And brings Jen safely back to land.*

*Out of the swirling, foaming brine
Thanks to the good St. Valentine
Two, now true, lovers do entwine.*

For our final poem this week, we are obliged to a 17th Century New England Puritan. Anne Bradstreet (1612-1672) was important in the history of American Literature because she was the first American poet and the first woman to have a book published in the United States.

As we are now in the depths of a cold winter and a harsh economic storm, the words that Anne wrote 350 years ago are particularly apposite, "If we had no winter, the spring would not be so pleasant; if we did not sometimes taste adversity, prosperity would not be so welcome." We don't know whether Anne wrote this verse for St.

Valentine's Day - but we can pretend that she did.

TO MY DEAR AND LOVING HUSBAND

*If ever two were one then surely we.
If ever man were loved by wife, then thee;
If ever wife were happy in a man,
Compare with me, ye women, if you can.
I prize thy love more than whole mines of gold*

*Or all the riches that the East doth hold.
My love is such that rivers cannot quench,
Nor ought but love from thee give recompense.*

*Thy love is such I can no way repay,
The heavens reward thee manifold, I pray.
Then while we live, in love let's so persevere
That when we live no more, we may live ever.*

● If you have a short poem of your own that you would like to share with our readers please send it to: Poetry for Pleasure, Lyme Media & Events Ltd, St Michael's Business Centre, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3QF. Or e-mail it to us at: pemedia@pemedia.co.uk

Bridport Leisure Centre joins national award scheme recognising the best health clubs in the country

BRIDPORT Leisure Centre has joined the Health Club Awards which recognises the best value clubs based on research conducted through members around the country.

The scheme measures the quality of customer service and facilities provided by clubs by asking customers to rate the clubs they are members of.

As Simon Brown, MD of Awards for Business who own and run the scheme explains "Belonging to a good club is a rewarding experience. Members probably spend more time there than they realise and it's become an integral part of their lifestyle. Providing them with a haven from their frantic day to day existence and at the same time helping them to tackle life in a healthier, more productive way.

"For the club it's not easy to get every aspect just right. It requires a lot of hard work and a belief that members should have a rewarding experience every time they visit.

"Through the Health Club Awards we will find out which clubs are providing the most rewarding member experience. We will recognise those clubs for their excellence and ultimately find out which are providing the best experience and membership value across the country."

All Members will have to do is to complete the brief questionnaire either at the centre or online at healthclubawards.com then once completed their name will be entered into a draw giving them the chance to win fantastic prizes –

- £1000 worth of Sport Equipment and clothing of their choice
- 3 month Price for Life Membership at Bridport Leisure Centre

Lin Hill, Membership and Marketing Co-ordinator at Bridport Leisure Centre said "We are very proud of the level of service we provide all our members. We believe we offer excellent value for money and this scheme is a great way to prove it."

The Marine Theatre hosts second Just Fair Laughs comedy night

THE second Just Fair Laughs comedy night takes place at the Marine Theatre on Saturday, February 19th, headlined by up-and-coming Cornish comic Paul Kerensa.

Paul Kerensa

Establishing himself as one of British comedy's leading young talents, both as a writer and a comedian, Paul Kerensa has, in just a few short years, become a regular at the UK's biggest venues, and a popular and reliable headline act.

Still only in his late twenties, Paul has battled both prejudice and apathy, and emerged to win ITV's 'Take The Mike' stand-up competition in 2002. In the same year, he appeared in four new act finals at the Edinburgh Festival, including the televised BBC New Comedy Awards.

He writes for various sitcoms, including BBC1 hits Not Going Out and After You've Gone, as well as sketch shows such as Dead Ringers, ITV's CGI UK and BBC3's The Wrong Door. He was awarded the Titheridge Prize as BBC Radio Entertainment's in-house comedy writer, and has also written for The News Quiz, The Now Show, and countless others.

Pat Gallagher

Pat is a Birmingham born comic who lives in the Forest of Dean and is recognised as one of the best comedians in comedy today. He says that for principally one reason only, he loves a good argument. Pat has headlined from Plymouth to Bahrain, as well as numerous festivals, including playing as support for Wil Hodgson at the ancient order of druids largest gathering in Wales. Now in his sixth year of performing stand up, one thing is for sure he won't be going away in a hurry.

Tony Vino (MC)

Lancashire's very own funnyman. Tony Vino has been touring the comedy scene since early 2005. He mixes friendly well thought out observational humour with audience interaction and quick witted responses. A finalist in 2006 Funny Bones competition, Tony has enjoyed recognition as a comedian and comedy compere of renown. His life and interests are wide ranging and so is the subject matter he weaves together on stage.

Tickets for the Just Fair Laughs show cost £10, £6.50 (full time education) and £30 for a family ticket, and can be booked from the box office at Lyme Regis TIC on 01297 442138 or online at www.marinetheatre.com.

There is also a fantastic opportunity for all budding comedians to attend a comedy workshop by Tony Vino at the Marine Theatre from 2-4pm on the day. Places are limited so call to book - places cost £10.

THIS WEEK'S NEW RELEASES

GNOMEO AND JULIET ^U

DISNEY'S latest animated offering comes in the form of Gnomeo and Juliet (available in 3D in certain cinemas).

Garden gnomes Gnomeo (voiced by James McAvoy) and Juliet (voiced by Emily Blunt) have as many obstacles to overcome as their quasi namesakes when they are caught up in a feud between neighbors. But with plastic pink flamingos and lawnmower races in the mix, can this young couple find lasting happiness?

The film include an incredible list of vocal talents including Michael Caine, Matt Lucas, Jason Statham, Ozzy Osborne, Patrick Stewart, Julie Walters and Hulk Hogan.

JUST GO WITH IT ^{12A}

DANNY (Adam Sandler) is a successful plastic surgeon who pretends to be unhappily married to get women. When he finally meets a girl (Brooklyn Decker) he believes to be the woman of his dreams, he doesn't use his method on her, but she soon finds the wedding band he uses. Afraid of telling her the truth, he tells her he's getting a divorce, to which she requests to meet his soon-to-be ex. He asks his office manager Katherine (Jennifer Aniston) to pose as his wife in order to prove his story, but one lie turns into another that brings Katherine's children into his scheme, resulting in a trip to Hawaii that will change all their lives.

NEVER LET ME GO ^{12A}

AS children, Ruth (Keira Knightley), Kathy (Carey Mulligan) and Tommy (Andrew Garfield), spend their childhood at a seemingly idyllic English boarding school. As they grow into young adults, they find that they have to come to terms with the strength of the love they feel for each other, while preparing themselves for the haunting reality that awaits them.

YOGI BEAR ^{PG}

CGI meets live action and 3D in this modern story of the iconic Yogi Bear. Jellystone Park is celebrating its 100th anniversary, however it may be for the last time, because attendance is down and Mayor Brown wants to close the park and sell the land. If the park is closed, Yogi Bear (voiced by Dan Aykroyd) and Boo Boo (voiced by Justin Timberlake) will lose their home. They join forces with Ranger Smith to save Jellystone from closing forever. Yogi must really prove in this endeavor that he is "smarter than the average bear"

YOUNG TRAINEE CREW WANTED FOR THE TALL SHIP PELICAN

WEYMOUTH is very lucky to be the home port for the Tall Ship Pelican. The ship is dedicated to youth development and offers a perfect local opportunity for young people to really get involved in this fascinating project. The square rigged sailing ship sails 1000's of miles each year with its crew of young people and the young at heart, offering challenging voyages for people of all ages from 15 to 80. The permanent crew are always on hand to guide trainees, therefore no previous sailing experience is necessary for prospective crew – just energy and enthusiasm.

This year the first day sail will be on Saturday, April 2nd continuing with a selection of adventure voyages and day sails out of Weymouth and then to Ireland and the west coast of Scotland before joining the Tall Ships Races from Waterford, Ireland in July, then Greenock in Scotland including the Western Isles for the Cruise in Company and finally to Stavanger, Norway. A Transatlantic voyage in September is planned and the crew are currently in talks locally about a significant role in the 2012 Olympics.

The Pelican is currently seeking a number of young adults from the local area to embark upon a Youth Sailing Adventure of a lifetime by taking part in The International Tall Ships Races 2011. The Tall Ship Race is an International Youth Sailing Festival organised by Sail Training International, www.sail-traininginternational.org. This festival will see Square Rigged and Sail Training Ships from all over the world merging to bring together communities of international youth from all over the world. This event encourages international friendships and understanding and a competitive spirit as the ships race between each port. Pelican has a good reputation of being very competitive in these races which provides an experience that young trainees will never forget.

Education and Marketing Officer Ben (David) Swain said: "We are delighted that we can offer this fantastic opportunity to local young people. We need to select a great bunch of young sail trainees who will definitely get so much out of this experience. Anyone interested should attend our open day to find out more about the cost of the voyage and how to start raising funds to enable them to get on board for an adventure they will never forget"

The Ship will be holding Open Days on Saturday 12th and Sunday, February 13th between the hours of 11am and 3pm on board the Pelican which is berthed adjacent to the Pavilion Theatre in Weymouth Harbour. Numbers will be limited to 30 per day, so bookings are essential. The itinerary for the day will commence with a general introduction by Chief Executive Officer, Richard Gilmore, followed by a 'meet the permanent crew' session and lunch. Full details of all the youth training voyages will be given including the voyage map for the Tall Ships Races and help and guidance concerning fundraising and applications for bursaries and other support. Places are limited so please book now to secure a place.

If you are interested in attending one of the Open Days please get in touch with Rose Robson at the Pelican Office 01305 839476 or email pelicanlp@btconnect.com. More details can be found at www.adventureundersail.com

The Harbour Inn fires up the Heat

Before now (on many occasions), the most important lady in my life on Valentines Day has been my mother. Not only because she brought me, and my two industrious sized brothers kicking and screaming into this world, but also due to the fact that she has her birthday on St Valentines Day.

This year will be no different! (Queue the Violins...)

In fact, this February I will have been with my better half for a strong 5 months and things couldn't be better. She is however a Nurse who takes care of newborn babies in Exeter so has to divide her time up with seeing me and saving lives. The fact she has to work this Valentines means I get to spend it again with dear old Mum again.

Because we are unable to see each other on Monday evening we decided to pop out for dinner a week early to celebrate the occasion and wisely chose the Harbour Inn, Lyme Regis for a special Valentines evening together.

Just In case you have not been lucky enough to dine at this superb

Harbour side restaurant, here is the low-down. It is a thriving family-run business on the sea-front at Lyme Regis offering an extensive wine list, full flavoured coffee, well stocked bar serving local ales and ciders, and a fantastic selection of menu's and specials boards which are frequently updated. It's idyllic location offers seaside views along the World Heritage Jurassic Coastline and on sunny days you can sit and dine alfresco style in the private dining area on the beach and watch the boats leave the harbour. There is also a lovely balcony area overlooking the beach that even as the cool evening air draws in can be heated so you can enjoy these views at dusk.

OUT IN WEST DORSET This month:

This February for Romantic Dining

On our special evening we were pleasantly seated in the air-conditioned Restaurant area behind the bar and served our drinks whilst we checked through the various evening menus. My Girlfriend chose the filo wrapped Tiger Prawns served with sweet chilli dipping Sauce and I went for the Duck Liver, Red Wine and Bacon Pate with Apple and Thyme Chutney to start then to follow we opted for a trio of fish with leek, safron and mussel sauce with potatoes and vegetables and I had the Slow Roast Pork Belly on Bubble and squeak with cider gravy and vegetables on the side.

The food was absolutely delicious, it was clear that the finest, freshest, local ingredients had been sourced and it was home made wherever possible. We were so stuffed after the mains that we decided to share a treacle tart dessert and the presentation of even that was beautifully done. You can see from the photo's I took on the pages here that the presentation of the food at the Harbour Inn is up there with the best in the area.

The Harbour Inn has regular music events so keep an ear to the ground for when these are up and coming and also the fantastic paintings on all the walls in the Bar and Restaurant are all expertly done by the Daughter of the owner, Sue who works in the kitchen (pictured). Also the Harbour Inn has an extensive Cocktail list of which new specials will be added in time for Easter. I'm sure they will be 'egg-citing' so watch this space. If you've not yet sorted your Valentines meal, what are you waiting for! Call 01297 442299 to book, or if you have, think about Mum (like I will be doing) and take her for a Mother's Day treat.

Very basic computer training

LOCAL business woman, Rachel Brown, has been teaching one to one "Very Basic Computer Training" to those who are still nervous or unsure about using their computer. Though a coincidence, it is a timely move as the local Community Learning Centre, The Yarn Barton Centre, is due to close at the end of February 2011.

Rachel offers a free initial meeting to discuss the requirements of the user then offers tailor-made lessons and provides a step-by-step guide relevant to the training received. Her fees are competitive and availability to train is very flexible.

Through experience and research, Rachel has noticed that there is still a large number of people, old and young, who are not able to do, what is seen to be, basic skills such as creating folders, opening email attachments and filing digital photographs. There is also a lot of people sceptical about using online shopping sites due to security worries or fear of ordering the wrong items.

One of Rachel's students says "I find Rachel explains things in a language that makes sense. She is very patient and understands exactly what I need to achieve. She sticks to what I need to know and acknowledges things that may be of use to me that I didn't know I could do. Her step-by-step guides are very useful after Rachel has left and I don't feel under pressure to retain all the information she has taught me at the time."

Rachel says "not everyone can use a computer but a lot of information given on standard computer courses is irrelevant to most people. My job is to put people at ease with their computers. I have a number of years experience in training basic computer skills and feel it is necessary now for people to be able to use their home PCs effectively"

For more information or to book an appointment with Rachel call 01308 861085 or 07779 593351

The Palm House Re-Opens!

AFTER weeks of refurbishment, The Palm House Cafe and Garden Centre re-opens for business on 11th February at 9.30am.

The historic Edwardian glasshouse has again been extended and improved by the owners, Nigel and Vicky Duff. The Palm House now boasts a fantastic new play area for Under-5's, extra seating, new plant displays and gift shop and coming shortly, a ceramic studio. There are also options to hire parts of the glasshouse for functions and even a cycle stop facility where bikes can be left safely on the premises, all day if necessary!

The Palm House have also increased the extent of the menu to include a genuine 'Home-made Range' incorporating fresh soup, scones and cakes to compliment the existing delicious breakfast and lunch menu. They also still offer their same great coffee, relaxed atmosphere and friendly service that is becoming more and more popular.

As Nigel says, "We have reinforced our family orientated ethos by offering a superb new play facility for small children so parents can relax whilst the children play in a safe and warm environment. There is no other facility like it in the area and we invite families and others to sample our hospitality and enjoy the unique atmosphere of The Palm House"

Open everyday, 9.30am to 5pm. Melcombe Regis Carpark, Commercial Rd, Weymouth. Tel: 01305 458089

Recycling with style

EVENT organiser, Rachel Brown, has re-launched her recycling and budget busting quest by holding a Fashion and Homewares sale on 12th February 2011 at the Sports Pavilion, Memorial Ground in Beaminster from 10.45am to 1.00pm.

This time last year, Rachel hosted a series of "Rail Sales" to encourage people to sell their clothing and accessories in a table sale environment but giving the ambience a sense of upmarket buying. This time, she is extending the sale to home items and even DVDs.

Rachel says "I find internet auction sites too time consuming and venturing to cold, wet car boot sales at 6am does not appeal if I am selling next to new items. I find this way of selling gives people a chance to make some extra cash during these very difficult times".

In the past, these recycling events have been very popular. Regular market traders and party plan businesses have also taken part giving the event a really good quality feel.

A previous seller said "the last two events I attended I made £80 each time. Every last detail was very well thought of. There was even the use of an iron and ironing board helping us to make the clothes we were selling look fabulous and very sellable. I have lost a lot of weight and had some beautiful, excellent quality, clothes to sell ranging from Monsoon to Jaeger. One of the benefits of the sale was being able to look around at what other people were selling and even swapping some items with each other. I will definitely book again".

Rachel goes on to explain "These sales can work fantastically well as fundraising opportunities within schools or other organisations. I am more than happy to discuss the options for fundraising to anyone who would like to host an event with a difference."

If you would like to book a table or clothes rail then call Rachel on 07779 593351.

Meet the FSB Rentals team

For property lettings in and around Seaton

FSB Rentals, the lettings department of Fortnam Smith and Banwell, team estate agent in Seaton, is delighted with its expansion over the last few months and is proud to manage more property for more clients than ever before.

The dedicated and highly efficient team is now headed up by manager, Sue Wallis. Previously a business owner/ manager and holiday lettings agent, Sue was introduced to Fortnam Smith and Banwell when she became a bank cashier at the Halifax branch in the FSB office. After redundancy in 2006, Sue accepted an invitation to join the FSB family and four years later, is thrilled with her promotion, from senior negotiator to rentals manager.

Senior negotiator, Louisa Merritt joined FSB Rentals in March 2010. Louisa worked in sales for three years then took a break to have children and more recently, owned a local retail business in the town. Having lived in Seaton all her life, Louisa has an excellent knowledge of the town and its properties and is working towards achieving the Technical Award in Residential Letting and Property Management qualification.

The newest member of the FSB Rentals team is negotiator, Lin Walkerdine, who joined in August 2010. A qualified company secretary, Lin has been a project manager for one of the largest housebuilders in the country and has experience in contract negotiation and property law as well as property rentals. Lin applied for a position with Fortnam Smith and Banwell as her family has bought and sold properties via the agency and its approach was always professional, friendly and helpful.

Lin's favourite part of the job is matching tenants with properties and seeing them enjoy their new homes, while Louisa particularly enjoys the day to day contact with people and thrives on the challenges that arise on a daily basis.

Sue said: "Lin, Louisa and I work extremely well as a team, offering help and support to each other in this very demanding job. We provide the best possible service with a rolling selection of properties for tenants and a choice of packages for our landlords, from a find-only level to a fully managed service with everything taken care of. The job can be challenging at times, but it is all worth it for the best part, which is seeing people settled and happy in their new homes."

FSB Rentals is the lettings department of Fortnam Smith and Banwell in Seaton, which provides a comprehensive range of services, now including the brand new Home Passport, designed to help sell homes quicker.

For further information, to view a property for sale or to rent or to arrange a free, no-obligation market appraisal for the sale or rental of your property, pop into the Fortnam Smith and Banwell office at 1 Vineyard Court in Seaton's town centre, call FSB Rentals on 01297 21120, sales on 01297 23939 or visit www.teamprop.co.uk.

A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY TO ENJOY THE LIFESTYLE THAT THIS BEAUTIFUL PROPERTY OFFERS

THE Rousdon Estate is a private estate which consists of several buildings including the Church. It is secluded and only accessible from the main road via the Gatehouse entrance. There is a private access which leads to the beach.

Many of the period features have been retained within the building including arched leaded windows with stained glass which can be pulled back to reveal plain glass allowing extra light to flood into the interior. There are wooden floors and ceilings and the walls are partially panelled in wood.

All walls are decorated in neutral colours giving a feeling of space and light.

The lounge has a high ceiling which extends into the roof in one part of the room and original stone with decoratively tiled floors. There is an original tiled frieze to one wall and the remainder are stone with wooden rafters to the arched ceiling.

The kitchen has a range of high quality kitchen units and appliances with a large dining area, with views and access to the gardens. A utility room with washing machine and tumble dryer is provided as an annexe to the house across a small courtyard.

The bathroom is located on the ground floor and furnished to a high specification.

One of the upstairs bedrooms is accessed via a stone spiral staircase.

The property has oil fired central heating throughout. The other upstairs bedroom has a mezzanine area over the lounge which has wooden floors and beams.

All fixtures and fittings are of the highest quality and the conversion has been sympathetically achieved to retain the character but provide a comfortable and attractive home. Please call Fortnam Smith & Banell (rentals) on 01297 21120.

Tyres can suffer a 'hole' lot of damage following cold snap

DRIVERS are being advised by TyreSafe, the UK's leading tyre safety organisation, that they can minimise the damaging effects of driving over potholes by making sure their tyres are correctly inflated. Hitting a pothole can cause serious internal tyre damage, which may result in dangerous sidewall bulges, or result in cuts to the tyre which may expose cords, rendering it both dangerous and illegal.

It has been estimated that in 2010 there were 8,000 pot hole related claims to insurers and the early signs are that 2011 will exceed this due to the damage caused to roads during the freezing weather.

Local authorities are also facing pressure as to which roads they prioritise for repair due to cuts of up to 20 per cent in road maintenance budgets. According to the Local Government Association, Councils in England and Wales face a £165m funding gap to repair roads damaged by the winter weather.

Stuart Jackson, chairman, TyreSafe, comments: "Potholes can cause significant damage to wheels and tyres. It's therefore important for drivers to ensure their tyres are properly inflated to reduce any potential damage. If they do suffer the misfortune of hitting a pothole, drivers should make sure both their wheels and tyres are thoroughly inspected by a professional for signs of damage. This may occur in the form of cuts or bulges in the tyre or, as we have seen increasing cases of, hairline fractures appearing in alloy wheels.

"In fact, whatever time of year it is motorists should always check their tyre pressure at least once a month and especially if they are planning any long journeys."

Other effects of hitting a pothole include wheel misalignment. If there is significant misalignment the car may pull to one side or cause vibrations in the steering wheel which can be distracting and make the vehicle difficult to control. In less severe cases this can go unnoticed by the driver yet still result in increased or irregular tyre wear and higher fuel costs.

"Many garages and tyre dealers offer free tyre safety inspections for drivers. Properly equipped workshops can also perform some quick and simple checks to make sure the wheels are properly aligned," adds Stuart Jackson.

If motorists are unsure of the correct tyre pressure for their car, they can visit the TyreSafe website at www.tyresafe.org.uk enter their vehicle's registration details or by downloading the TyreSafe iPhone App. Alternatively, details can be found in the vehicle manufacturer's handbook, inside the fuel filler cap or on a sticker inside the driver's door sill.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

LYME TURN UP THE HEAT

Hounds pounce on last eight spot

CHALLENGE CUP - Round One
Beaminster 6 Ilminster Town Res 0
BEAMINSTER cruised through to a home quarter-final with Merriott Rovers after demolishing a struggling Ilminster Town Reserves side for the second time in seven days.

Beaminster manager Sean Annetts took the opportunity to give starts to four players who have been figuring mainly from the substitutes bench so far this season: "I guess you could call it rotating the squad. I just felt it was only fair to give the lads (Ted Boswell, Dean Hyett, Will Allen and Tom Fletcher) a decent run-out - and they all responded with fine performances," said Annetts.

After failing to take several early chances the Rainbows eventually broke the deadlock when Murray Legg was fouled in the box and Richie Runyard tucked away the resulting spot-kick.

And that's how it stayed until the break: "I was fearing we may get punished for not taking the early chances" said Annetts.

But those fears were ended soon after the restart when Legg doubled the lead and Ben Ward added a third and a place in the last eight was confirmed.

Legg netted his second as did Ward with the pick of the goals - a superb solo run and finish.

There was still time for Legg to complete his hat-trick and move into double figures for the season.

Annetts MoM award went to Legg with Dean Newman once again impressing in a central midfield role.

Misterton 2 Farway United 1
IT'S 19 years since Misterton lifted the League's oldest knock-out cup trophy. Jak Platt's side kept their hopes of triumph in this season's competition alive when they scraped past Farway United at a blustery Unity Lane.

The Devon side, playing their first PSL-related game for nine weeks, had the elements in their favour for the first 45 and took the lead when Andy Diamond bagged the opener.

But the hosts were level through a Will Brooks breakaway goal before the interval and earned a home quarter-final against Combe Reserves with a Neil Hawkins second-half winner after visiting 'keeper Phil Woodley slipped.

Top performer for Farway was centre-back Dave Summers.

S.Petherton 2 W & M Chinnock 1
"WE were very poor" was South Petherton's player-manager Gordon Childs' overall assessment of his side's unconvincing 2-1 win over West & Middle Chinnock.

A foul on midfielder Jon Hayter allowed Rich Hebditch to open the scoring for the hosts from the penalty spot.

Hayter himself added the second to take his tally for the season up to 12.

The win sets up a mouthwatering quarter-final with Lyme Regis on February 19th at Lightgate Lane.

KENNY HODGES CUP - Round One
Shepton Res 1 Waytown Hounds 2
AFTER a goal less first 45 a double from Tom Rutland saw the Waytown Hounds book into the last eight of the Ken Hodges cup with a fine 2-1 win at in-form Shepton Beauchamp Reserves.

The hosts, on a superb run that had brought six straight wins, took the lead midway through the second-half through striker Will Aplin who netted for the 19th time of the season.

But the Hounds bounded back. Rutland netted five minutes later to force extra-time and secured the win and a home quarter-final against West & Middle Chinnock Reserves with his six goal in four outings in the 93rd minute.

Goalkeeper Billy Fleet, centre-back Danny Hallett and striker Danny Dunford earned the praise of Hounds' manager Mark Hughes.

PREMIER
Lyme Regis 4 Barrington 0
IN-FORM Lyme Regis extended their winning run to eight games with, what was in the end, a fairly comfortable win over Barrington at the Davey Fort.

Once again it took The Seaside's interval and earned a home quarter-final against Combe Reserves with a Neil Hawkins second-half winner after visiting 'keeper Phil Woodley slipped.

Top performer for Farway was centre-back Dave Summers.

There was a moment of concern for the Lyme supporters when Ashley Caddy raced from his goal line and hauled down striker Adam Gribble right on the corner of his area. But referee Jeff Farley booked Caddy and ruled that the offence had occurred marginally outside the area. Seconds later Alex Thomson found himself clear on goal but Caddy, at full stretch just reached the front man's attempted lob.

But Simier's goal was just around the corner and Lyme trooped off with their noses in front.

The lead was doubled three minutes after the restart when Danny Thirlwell cleverly picked out Gostling who made no mistake.

Any doubts over the win were ended in farcical goal in the 63rd minute. Barrington were awarded a free-kick near their own penalty box. The ball was rolled across the area to 'keeper Caines who was unaware what was happening and Thomson calmly clipped the ball into an almost empty net.

Midfielder Mark Bailey almost crowned an imperious Man-of-the-Match performance with the fourth five minutes later but his 25-yard free-kick clipped the crossbar.

At the other end Caddy did well to tip a Gribble round the post but the scoring was rounded-off 10 minutes from time when Thomson fired home a low fizzzer for his sixth goal in seven matches.

Perry Street 2 Merriott Rovers 2
PERRY Street hauled themselves off the foot of the table with a point from a 2-2 draw with visiting Merriott Rovers who are now without a win in four.

Craig Lodge gave the Rovers a half-time lead bit a quickfire double-strike after the restart from Stuart Packer raised Street hopes of a crucial three points. But Jason Crabb leveled 20 minutes from time and earned his side a point.

DIVISION ONE
Crewkerne Town 6 Charmouth 1
CHARMOUTH manager Nick Pomeroy had mixed feelings about his team's latest defeat.

The Robins took the lead at Henhayes through Graham Herring and looked good until a lack of concentration allowed the hosts back into the game. "I thought we were the better side for the first-half, it was just a shame that we gave them such a weak goal to get back into the game," said Pomeroy.

He second-half was a different story with Crewkerne quickly taking control after a handball presented Jamie Spurdle with penalty to make it 2-1. "Once it went to 3-1 we just collapsed. It was disappointing after such a good first-half" said Pomeroy who selected central midfielder Nicky Phillips as his star performer. Spurdle (3), Adam Dawe, Kevin Wheeler and Barry Hayne scored for the hosts.

Netherbury 4 Perry Street Res 2
NETHERBURY went joint top of the table with a 4-2 win against Perry Street Reserves.

After a bright start, it was Phil Hussey who calmly slotted home after good work by Aaron Marshall on the left wing.

The visitors got back into the game with an unmarked header from a free-kick. But it proved not to be too costly as Tim Hussey scored minutes later with an accurate finish into the bottom corner.

Captain Pete Lawrence then got the Ambers off to a great start in the second-half, when he smashed the ball home for 10-yards.

Despite having several good chances the hosts did not extend their lead until the last 15 minutes, when John Kingston put in pinpoint cross and Tim Hussey planted a cushioned header past the keeper.

With the final whistle approaching Netherbury were pegged back to 4-2 when Perry Street scored with a free-kick.

Uplyme 0 Beaminster Res 5

UPLYME, shorn of midfield trio Jacques Verhearen, Adrian Strawbridge (cracked ribs) and Robbie Fellingham was in action for the Devon under 18s side, appeared to have done the hard work as they held title chasing Beaminster Reserves to just a single goal deficit at the interval.

"We were uphill against the wind so I was really pleased with the team spirit and commitment in the first-half" said Uplyme manager Rob Coombe.

A breakaway goal after the restart saw the Rainbows double their advantage but the hosts were still very much in the game. Ryan Prendeville was twice denied by the woodwork and even when the visitors added a third Will Francis was denied by a linesman's flag. Two more goals, the second a stunning 30-yarder from Dan Tolman into the top corner, rounded off the scoring.

With Dowlish & Donyatt surprisingly being thrashed 6-1 on their home turf by rivals Shepton Beauchamp, Beaminster returned to the top spot. Ross Pickett (2), Dan Pyett and another from Tolman made up the Rainbows' nap-hand.

Assistant manager Pete Stone gave his MoM award to midfielder Lee Gillard. For Uplyme Coombe selected Gavin Fowler, in an unfamiliar central midfield position, as his top man.

FLOOD ENDS WIN FAMINE

DORCHESTER TOWN 1 WESTON-SUPER-MARE 0
Blue Square South - Attendance: 363

Saturday, February 5th

CHRIS FLOOD fired Dorchester Town to their first win of 2011 and increased manager Ashley Vickers determination to extend the Crawley Town players stay at the club.

The winger scored his second goal in three games to finally secure the Magpies first win in ten matches and help steer the county town away from the Blue Square Bet South relegation zone.

Vickers gave another loaned, Dan Thomas signed from AFC Bournemouth earlier in the week, his debut in place of Regan Coward whilst Doug Bergqvist was named as a substitute.

The strong wind that blew from corner to corner of the pitch made good football difficult, but Weston, playing with the advantage almost scored in the sixth minute when Martin Slocombe's wind assisted corner struck the top of the bar.

Flood won closest for Dorchester in the first half with a header from Steve Devlin's centre that was just wide of the woodwork, before a knee injury forced Jamie Gleeson to be replaced by Neil Martin.

With the wind at their backs, Dorchester pressurised their visitors with a succession of corners with Kyle Critchell going close from two before Jamie Laird cleared a Gary Bowles effort off the line.

Flood won the game on 72 minutes when he curled the ball around the Weston defence into the bottom corner from a free-kick following a retake for encroachment.

The Seagulls raised their game in search of an equaliser, and Thomas was called into action to save from Jamie Price, but the Magpies held on to break their duck and earn a valuable three points.

Improving Magpies earn a point

DORCHESTER TOWN 1 CHELMSFORD CITY 1
Blue Square South - Attendance: 361

A MUCH improved performance saw Dorchester Town unlucky not to have taken all three points against high-flying Chelmsford City. The point however edged them a point clearer of the Blue Square Bet South danger area.

With no win this year and only one point from their previous two home games in the last 12 days, manager Ashley Vickers who lambasted his side after the 3-3 draw with Welling was looking for his improvement, and he got it with what he described as one of the best displays of the season.

Chelmsford who included their transfer deadline signing, former Wimbledon, Southend United and Yeovil Town striker Wayne Gray, made the brighter start, and he had a half chance that missed the target.

However with their first attack the Magpies scored when Ryan Moss and loanee Chris Flood played a one-two before top-scorer Moss slotted the ball under Claret's keeper James Pullen as he closed the angle down. Steve Devlin who had supplied the cross in the build up to the goal, then produced a typical thunderbolt that Pullen did well to stop.

Whilst Dorchester continued to have the better of the first-half, Chelmsford did threaten through Matthew Lock from the edge of the area and a thumping header from centre-half Adam Tann which crept wide. Flood retaliated with two efforts that just missed the target.

Robert Edmans pulled the Essex side level eight minutes after the break when Regan Coward could only parry the ball in an aerial duel with the giant Robert Edmans who reacted first as the ball ran loose to force it over the line. Despite protests from Dorchester the goal was allowed to stand.

With Gary Bowles showing what a good defender he is, and Nathan Walker both looking solid, Chelmsford could not find a way through the Magpies defence and could have snatched the three points they just about deserved. Jamie Gleeson just failed to connect with Moss' centre whilst Flood's curling effort was well held by Pullen, before the Claret's manager Glenn Pennyfather was sent to the stands after reacting to the crowd following comments made when Billy Bricknell was injured in what appeared an innocent fall.

Mark Jermyn and James Coutts both had chances in added time to win the points for Dorchester who edged a point nearer to safety.

Vickers was pleased with the whole team performance but picked out Bowles and Walker for a superb defensive display, and Gleeson and Coutts in midfield. "I felt we were the better team, created more chances and looked more threatening."

Rolls calls for vote of confidence

WEYMOUTH Football Club chairman George Rolls has called for a vote of confidence by calling a general meeting to be held after tonight's home match against Didcot Town on February 24th.

The controversial chairman, fed up by criticism about changes he made to a non-profit document he signed last week, has called for the fans to make a decision whether they want him to continue at the club

Devizes Town 1 Bridport 0
Toolstation Division One - Attendance: 115

A LACK-LUSTRE display saw Bridport slip to defeat at in-form Devizes Town on a day when they had the chance to gain ground on their rivals with leaders Merthyr crashing to defeat at home and Oldland Abbotonians only managing a draw at Almondsbury UWE.

A goal six minutes from half-time condemned the Bees to their fifth defeat of the season, allowing the Wiltshire side who with their tenth consecutive win has seen them close to within a point of Bridport albeit having played three games more.

Alan Hill and Shane Evans replaced the missing Ryan Hayer (work) and Chris Clarke who failed a fitness test on the dead leg he picked up at Keynsham, and despite playing against the wind, Bridport competed well for the first 35 minutes.

Chances were at a minimum, with Matt Condliffe's shot from an angle comfortably saved by Jamie Domm being the best of them.

Devizes showed little either and the best chance prior to the goal was snuffed out by Dan Wise who chased back to clear the danger when the hosts for once pierced the solid Bees defence.

However on 39 minutes Bridport failed to pick up on a quickly taken throw in and Luke Quince crossed allowing Jason Lewis a free header to beat Sam Filkins.

Despite the advantage of the conditions after the interval, Bridport failed to break down the home defence well marshalled by Russell Gee, and the use of long-ball tactics as frustration set in played into Devizes hands.

Bridport's cause was not helped on 72 minutes when Russell Legg was red carded following a high tackle on Jake Walters. Wise did hit the outside of the near post from a corner but that was all Bridport could muster in a disappointing performance.

10-man Bees salvage second-half pride
BRIDPORT RESERVES 3 BLANDFORD UNITED 4

MANAGER Steve Crabb was left scratching his head after his side produced a Jekyll and Hyde performance at St Mary's Field last Saturday.

Having beaten then 4-0 just two weeks ago, Bridport found themselves 3-0 down and a player short after the first 45 minutes. However a change of personnel at the break saw the Bees produce a stirring second-half fight back before going down to the odd goal in seven.

Blandford punished Bridport for their slow start and took the lead on 15 minutes from a well struck free-kick and doubled the advantage when the Bees defence allowed a Blandford player to run across the penalty box before firing in the opposite corner.

Almost immediately Ben Clarke received a red card after he was brought down and the referee took his remarks to be personal and dismissed him for foul and abusive language.

To compound their disappointment Bridport conceded a third when the opposition were given a free header from a free-kick, although they were unlucky not to pull a goal back with two efforts just before the break.

Crabb and joint manager Mark Lock brought on Adam Steele and James Maidment for the start of the second-half, and the team were transformed.

Steele, making his way back after a long injury, was a revelation in midfield alongside the equally impressive Robin Jones, and slowly the Bees got back into the game.

Chris Herbst reduced the arrears from the penalty spot following a handball offence, before Jones slid in at the far post to convert Dom McAllister's cross.

It looked as if the ten men had drawn level through Steele, but his shot struck both posts from which Blandford broke upheld to increase their lead.

Carl Bulman gave his side hope with a third with seven minutes to go, and McAllister almost pulled them level with a good header that just slid past the post.

Crabb said: "It was disappointing having beaten them two weeks ago, but give them their due, we were slow out of the blocks and they took advantage. I think Ben Clarke was unlucky to be sent off; I think the ref thought his words were directed at him."

Future is bright for Bridport

BRIDPORT 1 CHILD OKEFORD 1

ONCE again Bridport made a slow start to the match and paid for it by conceding when the impressive James Legg put through his own goal; blasting the ball into his own net as he tried to turn a cross over his own crossbar.

The goal sparked Bridport into life and they began to find their game, and they equalised through Adam Moss who rounded off a good passing movement.

After the break the Bees stepped it up and took control of the game. Roger Cummings in his second game back had a goal disallowed for pushing, before Chris Symes missed a great opportunity to win all three points on the penalty spot following a handball, but his poor kick was saved.

Manager Jason Forbes said: "I don't know what it is but we seem to start slowly. There was no urgency and our passing was too slow. They were a mature, well organised and balanced side; better than when we played them away. We were much the better side in the second half but didn't create too much."

Forbes was pleased with his side's second-half display and the talent that he is nurturing through the third team as a platform to supplying players for the club's senior side.

"James Legg has been outstanding and our best player for a number of games and is ready to step up to the reserves as is Robin Jones. Tom Knott has now played a few games and is getting back to the kind of form that will get him promoted through the ranks, whilst Adam Moss is making a speedy recovery after such a long time out."

"All this augers well for the future of the club, and is exactly what the third team is here to do."

BRIDPORT U13 6 STURMINSTER MARSHALL 1

BRIDPORT under 13s continued their good run of form with a 6-1 victory at St Mary's against Sturminster Marshall. Goals from Joel Eckett (2), Liam Sayers (2), Owen Ward and Jon Paul Avery completed a comfortable victory.

The Under 13s have won four of the last five matches and are now 3rd in the table just a point off top spot. With eight games to go, and all their title contenders to play, the league title is wide open.

Buckler suffers second fatality

BOB Buckler's horse racing yard suffered the heartache of a second fatality in a month when Wild Tango collapsed and died at Chepstow on Friday.

The five-year-old was making his debut in the last race of the meeting, the digibet.com Standard Open NH Flat Race, when he lost touch and was pulled up by Andrew Glassonbury after 1 ¼ miles.

They started to canter back when he collapsed around two furlongs from the finish. It is believed that he burst an artery.

The tragedy follows the death of Ellie Wiggins at Towcester last month.

Buckler said: "We are obviously shocked by his death, and are still recovering from the loss of Ellie Wiggins. Whilst we are not sure of the exact reason, we believe it was a burst artery; there was no pulse after he collapsed."

The loss of a horse is one of the hazards and unpleasant sides of racing, but is normally a result of a fall; the yard's last fatality was Warlord who was brought down at Wincanton in March 2007.

There was more disappointment when his second horse at the same meeting, Power Lord, was pulled-up by Will Kennedy in the three mile Lindley Catering Novices' Hurdle, a decision that upset the Henley trainer.

The promising six-year-old was having his third run and had already finished third in testing conditions over the same distance at Towcester three weeks earlier, and Buckler is puzzled as to why the experienced Kennedy pulled him up, particularly as they then cantered home and only finished 50-yards behind the last horse.

"He was having his third run, which then qualifies him for a handicap, and he had shown from Towcester that he was capable of handling the ground so I saw no reason why Will pulled him up especially as he hacked home just behind the last horse. It's annoying as we have all the cost of running him again to get his handicap including the jockey's fee!"

There was disappointment too in the bumper at Wincanton on Thursday when both Quix and Champagne Rosie finished at the rear.

Buckler had no explanation for Quix, who after a promising third at Lingfield on his debut dug his heels in at the end of the straight first time and was soon tailed off.

"He just put the brakes on as he passed the stables for no apparent reason, so we will have to check out why," said a bemused Buckler.

Champagne Rosie had an encouraging debut at Exeter, but hung badly and was seriously hampered by a horse that fell and brought another down.

Buckler's only other runner Balyeagan was expected to go close at Towcester in the Bet In Play At Ladbrokes Handicap Chase after finishing second over the same course and distance three weeks earlier.

However he made an uncharacteristic jumping mistake at the tenth fence and pecked on landing and deposition his jockey Jack Sherwood on the ground from which he suffered a broken collarbone.

Stable jockey Nathan Sweeney resumes riding on Thursday following a 12-day ban for taking the wrong course at Huntingdon together with several other jockeys, when he rides Tiger Breeze at Taunton.

BOB BOB RACING

Life after the racecourse

NOT every horse bred for racing achieves their goal, and many are retired by their trainer or owner due to a host of reasons.

Many receive injuries that force them to retire, whilst some just don't take to racing and are therefore not successful.

The result is that the horses are often adapted to go hunting, or sold on to the public for recreational riding, or in some cases are retrained for eventing or showing.

Two of Bob Buckler's horses found themselves in this position, and through the patience and hard work of two of his staff, they have started to make a name for themselves in alternative fields.

The popularity of retired racehorses has increased immensely in the last few years as they have become more widely recognised as incredibly versatile, well mannered and well bred horses that can excel in the show ring.

After a not too distinguished racing career, six-year-old Freedom Frix sustained a serious tendon injury in the eleventh race of his career at Newton Abbot in the summer of 2008.

It was doubtful if the horse would ever be able to be ridden again such was the severity of the injury, and so stable girl Adele Follett took him under her wing to nurse him back to health.

He spent the first year on box rest, initially only being led out for ten minutes a day.

A scan showed that the rest had repaired the injury enough to start more strenuous work and Adele began schooling him, then riding him on the flat and eventually over small jumps.

She started last year showing him at local shows in the Working Thoroughbred class which consists of jumping some rustic fences before completing a set of individual set displays in walking, trotting and canter.

This culminated in competing in the Dorset County Show at Dorchester in September where he won the class and has now qualified for the final at the Royal Windsor Show in May.

Adele said: "The success is not only down to me. I have had a lot of help from local specialists in certain aspects of the training who have helped both the horse and me, for which I am very grateful."

It is not only about the physical training of the horse, but you also need to prepare them psychologically.

"Not only has he been doing working thoroughbred classes at local shows, he has been show jumping and taking part in dressage competitions so therefore is becoming a versatile horse in different spheres."

"I would like to thank Bob for allowing me to have Freedom Frix, and for talking to all the syndicate members to allow this to happen."

So Wise So Young suffered from recurring niggling injuries and just like humans, horses also know when they have had enough, and he was retired in the summer of 2008 having been placed three times in seven-teen starts.

"It was difficult as he couldn't stay sound, and eventually developed a back injury which put him off racing," said Alison Conroy who used to look after him in the yard and is now re-training him.

Much the same as Freedom Frix, he has had to adapt to a new life and now competes in the In Hand Class.

This is different from Working Thoroughbred as it involves all types of horses, not just ex-racehorses, but thoroughbred and show horses, and whilst requiring you to follow a similar set of disciplines, it does not include the jumping aspect.

Like Adele, they have been showing at local shows where the combination won the Chard Show, and they came fourth in their class at the Dorset County Show.

Alison said: "I think ex-racehorses generally have a better temperament and are more laid back than those that have been show jumping."

Both are members of the RoR (Re-training of Racehorses) which is British horseracing's official charity for the welfare of horses who have retired from racing.

Relegation fight ahead

BEAMINSTER LADIES 0 POOLE 1

ON PAPER this match looked like a great chance for third bottom Beaminster to ease their relegation worries against bottom club Poole.

Last Saturday the East Dorset side had been thrashed 17-0 by league leaders Salisbury 2nds, and despite their lowly position Beaminster can think themselves unlucky to be there with some spirited performance.

However with Poole, who lost to second bottom Bournemouth 4th's 3-2 in midweek, strengthening their side with the inclusion of four players who it appears have not played for the club before, the game did not go to form, and Beaminster went down to a single goal scored midway through the second-half.

Already without Julia May who broke a finger last week, the hosts lost the experienced Emma Davies after just two minutes when she was hit in the face when the ball ricocheted off of a stick in a tackle, although she did return midway through the second period.

As a result, one of the youngest sides to have represented Beaminster just failed to keep their much more experienced opponents at bay despite a battling performance.

Three of the new Poole recruits controlled midfield, whilst the fourth proved a very speedy and effective sweeper, and consequently they controlled the majority of the match, with most of the action in the home half of the field.

The only goal came after the most concerted passage of pressure by Poole and they won the game with a shot that appeared to be deflected past keeper Rachel Andrews who had a fine game in goal making a number of good saves.

In the first-half Beaminster, despite the pressure, broke on three occasions but the attention of the fast recovering Poole sweeper meant Becky Early and Freya Crawford were unable to get their shots away.

Becky Craddock worked tirelessly in defence whilst Harriet Hughes produced a superb performance in man-marking a much more experienced and larger player than her.

The result means both Bournemouth 4ths and Poole move level on eight points with Beaminster, although the West Dorset side's goal difference is far superior.

I'm still pinching myself!

WORLD champion Paul Blake admits he still can't believe what he has achieved in winning a gold and two silver medals at the 2011 IPC Athletics World Championships in Christchurch recently.

Talking exclusively to View From Dorchester's Stuart Broom, he said: "I have to keep pinching myself that I am world champion, it's unbelievable!"

Blake, who turned 21 whilst in camp training in Auckland, took the gold in the T36 400m event and silver in both the 1500m and 800m, beaten each time by the world champion Russian Artem Arefyev.

The remarkable thing is that the Charlton Down athlete only realised his running potential 18 months ago, since when under the guidance of UK Athletics at Bath University he has developed into a potential triple gold medallist at next year's Olympic Games to be held in the UK.

This was Blake's international debut for GB and by far the biggest event he had competed in, and he spoke of his thoughts about the championships after returning home last week.

What were your thoughts going to the championships?

Funnily enough pre-boarded at Heathrow I was thinking what my mental preparations should be before the races. How I should run my races."

What was your assessment of your tactics and how the three races developed?

Although silver is really good I didn't lose the other races because of my fitness but because of my experience, and if the 400m had been my first race then I might have maybe got gold in the other two.

In the 400m, my last event, there were heats and I could assess my strategy with my coach on how I ran the first 200m and then the final 200 and what I had done wrong and right in the race.

"I kicked off home far too soon in the 1500m, which was just silly! I should have gone at 120m, but going so soon pretty well lost me the race. In the 800m I did the same, going with 200m to go instead of 120m, and again the Russian pulled away."

"In the 400m final I got it tactically perfect because it was windy going into the back straight and so I paced the race from the gun. My coach told me to go through 200 in around 27secs and I went through in something like 27.4 so I was pretty near perfect, and so I just gradually built it up from there."

Blake increased his lead in the home straight to win in a personal best of 56.93 secs, winning by over a second and leaving the Ukrainian world record holder Roman Pavlyk trailing in third. "I put on the after burners!" he quipped.

Blake had recorded the fastest time in the world this year for both the 1500m and 800m, although no one knew how well Arefyev had done as he had not posted any times.

With the fastest recorded times this year in the two longer distances you must have thought you had a chance of gold in those two?

No, to me it's not about rankings or about fastest times this year at all, it's about the race on the day, and he ran a better race on the day.

"I was hoping to have won gold of course, and with hindsight if I had known I had better leg speed than Arefyev I would have run my races differently. I wasn't aware of his speed before the 1500m and 800m races. After of course I knew, and so I thought yes, he hasn't got very good speed and I used that to my advantage in the 400m."

If the races had been run the other way around I would have left my challenge until much later and could have possibly won gold."

You went into the 400m as the fourth fastest so to win it was a bonus?

"I just went into the race with an open mind. I wasn't really expecting to get a medal so was really relaxed. I did well in the heats setting a championship record and winning by six seconds so I was feeling really good."

None of you ran to your best times in the three races. I guess this was down to the occasion and the adrenalin?

I think it was the conditions as well with the headwinds and the change in weather every couple of hours. One minute it would be blue skies, and the next raining and really windy."

When did you realise you had won gold and how did you feel as you crossed the line?

With 120m to go I was neck and neck with the Russian (Andrey Zhirmov who was second), but as we got into the straight with around 80m left I knew I had him beaten and it was a case of just concentrating.

It was great as I crossed the line, I felt relaxed. All the hard work had been done and it had paid off.

Did you get on well with the other competitors?

Oh yes, none of them spoke English but they were all really nice. We all chatted as best we could in the final call, and at the end they were all really delighted for me, as I was them."

Great support for Wildcats consortium

AN UNPRECEDENTED turnout of almost two hundred Wildcats supporters crammed into Doonans Sand and Gravel Yard in Weymouth of Saturday to show their support for the consortium led by Harold Doonan who are bidding to bring back the Wildcats from the brink of extinction.

Doonan informed the gathered supporters that despite attempts to contact the landlords of the Wessex Stadium site, which has included an offer of a rent payment in advance for the season, no contact has been forthcoming. "We are drawing a blank at the moment, if this year doesn't happen, hopefully next year. Or if in the meantime the Council can be good to us or a friendly farmer comes along and says we've got a field then hopefully we can all get together and put in our own track which would belong to us, and not to Mr Curtis."

The local businessman went on to say: "It was a wonderful turnout; We had people from Poole, Southampton, Bournemouth, Christchurch. We've had messages of support from all over the UK as well as Europe, Australia and even the States."

The long time supporter and sponsor of the Wildcats passed a petition for supporters present to sign, getting the ball rolling. He continued: "The consortium that I'm in are all prepared to put money in and don't want to make any money out of speedway."

"So with nobody looking to make a profit we are doing it purely for the love of speedway and the people of Weymouth. We don't know where we stand at the moment, all we need is a yes or, a no but they won't communicate!"

"On 5th June 1950 the land was granted as a sports stadium and the structure of it has never been altered. We've offered to pay rent up front this year. We know he (Mr Curtis) has had his fingers burnt by other promoters not paying the rent but we are prepared to pay before we even start down there."

Concluding Doonan said to a massive round of applause: "I can assure you that I have done my utmost with my consortium to get speedway going here and we're still trying. Hopefully if he comes back and says yes you can have it, we then have to approach the BSPA for a licence and have a track inspection."

■ WORLD CHAMPION: Paul Blake proudly displays his medals, a gold and two silvers.

2012 in mind?

The first thing is try to have a holiday. As far as training I will be doing a lot more hill running and running on the sand a bit more, sand dune reps. I am also going to the gym a lot more to work with my legs, and a bit more on my arms and upper body. There's not much to change as far as my speed goes, my coach has been working on that with me during the past year; just work on my endurance a bit more.

"There is no automatic place despite my success; you have to go through qualification again. As no world records were broken, it's unlikely the qualifying times will change much, but I need to do it all again. GB is much stricter than some other countries."

Blake ended the interview by thanking a number of people who had helped him achieve his success by adding: "I want to thank my coach Rob Elchuck, all the physio's, all the staff of UK Athletics, mum and dad, and my sponsors, particularly Liz Nelson, who without their support I couldn't have done any of this. Liz has been tremendous in her support of me, and I would also like to thank the Terry Collin Trust for their donation which was invaluable in helping pay for me to get to training in Bath."

"Finally thanks for the View From for their support and interest in highlighting through me what disabled athletes can achieve with the right encouragement and support."

Dorchester on top in blustery local-derby

AFTER executing a passable and celebratory jig after the Wales v England result on Friday evening, I decided that the game of the day would be that between Bridport and Dorchester, so I took myself off to the Brewery Field on Saturday.

BRIDPORT 7pts DORCHESTER 16pts

THERE was half a gale blowing straight down the pitch at Bridport that threatened to ruin the game as a spectacle, and the home side had it at their backs during the first period.

The opening exchanges, as often happens in these local derby affairs, tended to the irascible, with Dorchester looking the likelier outfit, and with most of the action taking place in midfield.

The home side did tend to make things easier for their opponents by throwing to the tail of the lineout and being blown up for a squirt throw on several occasions, thus turning over possession. They gave away a few penalties too and, although they did not score, Dorchester continued to prosper throughout the first quarter.

They took the lead with a converted try on the half-hour, and it was a good one. Having won a penalty just inside their opponents' half, they kicked for territory, won the lineout some 15 yards out and drove to the home line before releasing. A good pass from the base of the ruck put out half Hunt into space. He did a 'show and go' and got over by the posts. Bament added the extras and Dorchester were seven points ahead.

In spite of having the wind in their favour, Bridport had lost the territorial battle thus far, and it came as a bit of a surprise when they equalised a few minutes before the break during one of their comparatively few incursions into their opponents' territory.

Having kicked a penalty deep into Dorchester twenty two, they won the ensuing lineout, sent the ball wide for out half Gaylor to break the defensive line and get over by the posts. Wes Lewis kicked the conversion and Bridport were level at 7-7.

In fact Bridport did have a chance to take the lead just before the break when they charged down a relieving kick and forced the visitors' defence into conceding a penalty on the twenty two. The place kick went wide however, and the scores remained tied at the interval.

I rather feared for the home side at this stage. They had been forced onto the defensive for much of the half, had lost a player to the bin, had been pushed off their own ball at the scrum on a couple of occasions, and would of course have to face the strong wind during the second forty.

Credit to Bridport, they rolled their sleeves up and contested the second-half well and, although most of the game was played in their territory they did not concede a further try. Dorchester for their part, were less than clinical, finding that it is not easy to pass the ball accurately when the wind is at your backs.

Bridport did lose their number eight forward to the bin soon after the restart but Dorchester could not take advantage. They did take the lead with a Bament penalty after some fifteen minutes, a score that would have relieved them, for they had made heavy weather of the third quarter and had certainly not converted territory into points. Bridport really could not offer too much in attack, in fact conditions were very much against running rugby.

Dorchester continued to have an edge forward in the set piece however, and with it came a marked territorial advantage. Hemmed in their own half Bridport conceded penalties and Bament converted two of them to take his side clear by the whistle for no side after what was a pretty turgid encounter.

While I felt that the visitors deserved to win this one, Bridport, struggling against relegation as they are, can take something from the game. I had written them off in the second half, but they defended well, scrambled, and made things difficult for Dorchester and perhaps deserved a losing bonus point. If they can play like this for the remainder of the season they can avoid the drop. All in all the game was typical of a local derby.

It was not a good day for the Bridport club overall, for their second side did not travel to South Wilts and conceded the fixture. On the other hand, both the Dorchester second and third sides won their respective games; the former coming out on top against visitors, North Dorset thirds by 27-10, while the latter bested Lytchett Minster seconds, also at home, by 31-15.

WEYMOUTH 22pts NORTH DORSET 2nd 3pts

WEYMOUTH would have ended the day pretty pleased with this performance.

The gale of course, played a prominent role, and the home side faced it in the first half. Nevertheless they took the lead via the boot of Tim Peplow, who kicked a penalty before the game was ten minutes old. The useful North Dorset side settled however and equalised midway through the half when they kicked a penalty goal of their own. The Weymouth defence did all that was asked of it however, and they finally relieved the pressure, went back upfield and scored an unconverted try by George Carter, after a break by their influential scrum half Barter, to lead 8-3 at the halfway stage.

Weymouth, now with the wind at their backs, dominated the second period, territorially speaking. They turned pressure into points also, in spite of an obdurate North Dorset defence. Craig Geldard scored the first try, converted by Peplow; and number eight forward Julian Quick, ran in the second, with his stand off again adding the extras, thus completing a very satisfactory win.

In fact, last weekend was a pretty good one all round for the Weymouth club, with their second side recording a very useful 27-7 win at Bournemouth 4th to consolidate their place on the edge of the promotion race from Dorset & Wilts League Division Three (South).

WHEATSHEAF CABIN CREW 25pts PUDDLETOWN 12pts

ALTHOUGH both sides started brightly enough, it soon became apparent that the home side were quicker to the breakdown, and they certainly made this fact count after some ten minutes' play when the got over for an unconverted try out wide.

Puddletown did have the edge in the set scrums however and subsequently enjoyed a period of dominance. They perhaps should have scored during the next few minutes and did in fact cross the home line only to be unable to ground the ball. On a day when conditions were tailor made for the back row scavengers, the final ten minutes of the first-half were Puddletown's undoing for, during this time the home side got over for two converted tries, and really took control of the contest, moving 19 points clear.

The scoreboard was certainly kept busy during the third quarter as two tries by Puddletown in turn went some way to wresting control back. First it was centre Yeatman, who found space and scored, and subsequently his co centre rounded his man and touched down by the posts. Yeatman added the extras to the second try, thus taking the half-time score to 19-12 in home favour.

Any thoughts Puddletown might have had of staging a further rally did not materialise in the second-half. The home edge in the loose continued, and this, together with the visitors' tendency to concede penalties, meant that much of the action took place in Puddletown's half. The Cabin Crew extended their lead with an early penalty goal and, although Puddletown competed until the whistle, they had few opportunities to attack, and a further home penalty sealed the home win.

PREVIEW

SATURDAY is devoted to the catching up of league fixtures that had been previously postponed owing to the weather. I believe all local sides are involved with the exception of BRIDPORT. They have lost a couple of fixtures to the elements, but both sets of opponents have other fish to fry, and they are therefore, left kicking their heels.

DORCHESTER make the journey to Bath to take on OLDFIELD OLD BOYS, a side who, after a rather slow start to their campaign, have made their way into the division's runners up place, and are still 'in with a shout' of promotion. I see that Dorchester came out on top when the sides met back in September, but Oldfield have certainly improved since then, and will most certainly be a difficult nut to crack, especially on their own ground. Dorchester will certainly have to be much more accurate and clinical than they were on Saturday last if they are to cause problems in this one.

WEYMOUTH have a home game against the SHERBORNE second side with whom they drew back in the autumn. Their opponents have enjoyed a pretty good season subsequently and lie in the division's second place. I believe that this will be a competitive encounter, with home advantage counting at the end of the day. Weymouth may well find themselves up against it though as Sherborne first side is without a fixture.

PUDDLETOWN have a home game against ELLINGHAM & RINGWOOD 2nd. Now I seem to remember that this side gave Puddletown a rather severe cuffing back in September. I do think that Puddletown have improved since then, but, even so they face a testing afternoon for their opponents reside in the league's second place currently.

As to the second sides, Bridport will be hoping for a win against visitors Swanage & Wareham thirds, while Dorchester will certainly have their hands full at Salisbury seconds. In division three (South), Dorchester thirds should have a little bit too much for hosts, Wimborne thirds, while Weymouth seconds might just edge a result at Verwood.

FIXTURES 12th February: Bridport 2nd v Swanage & Wareham 3rd; Chard v Gordano v Chard; Chard 2nd v Ivel Barbarians 2nd; Chard 3rd v Wyvern; Crewkerne v Taunton 3rd v Crewkerne; Oldfield Old Boys v Dorchester; Salisbury 2nd v Dorchester 2nd; Wimborne 3rd v Dorchester 3rd; Honiton v Teignmouth; Cullompton 2nd v Honiton 2nd; Puddletown v Ellingham & Ringwood 2nd (home); Sidmouth v Ivybridge (away); Sidmouth 2nd v Kingsbridge 2nd; Topsham 2nd v Sidmouth 3rd; Weymouth v Sherborne 2nd; Verwood v Weymouth 2nd.

Rathbone's single sweeps the board

HUGH Rathbone's single flounder was enough to take all the prizes in the West Bay Sea Angling Club's visit to Poole.

With no fish caught last year from a designated venue, it was hoped the fourteen members who took part would be more successful using a rover format.

Unfortunately the flounders failed to appear except one 560g one that won Rathbone the five hour competition as well as the heaviest fish and most species categories.

Rathbone had also been successful three days earlier in the Thursday night fish at West Bay where his 3kg 490g catch of dogfish, pout and whiting won him the day.

Among runner up Oliver Mears caught of 2kg 620g was a fine specimen whiting of 770g caught from the pier. Chris Harwood was third with 1kg 580g.

Mears also won the heaviest fish; a 905g dogfish, whilst P J Wheeler caught three of the six species that the twenty one members gathered between them.

PJ Wheeler was also successful in the Thursday night Burton Bradstock competition where his 2kg 775g haul of dogfish, pout and whiting won him first place.

Many of the nineteen members decided to fish on the rocky ground in front of the car park rather than the sandy ground to the left, and this proved a wise choice.

Lyn Mudford claimed second place with a catch of 2kg 150g including the heaviest fish; a 1kg 795g cod, with Will Halliday's haul of 1kg 640g of dogfish gaining him third place. Keith Woods won most species with three.

The Andy Neal Rover at the beginning of January was held in rough, cold weather, and whilst many of the ten members decided to fish Lyme Regis which afforded some protection from the gales, Paul House decided to brave the gales at Abbotsbury before being forced to move to West Bay.

However it proved to be the right decision a he took first prize with 1kg 650g of fish, ahead of Adam Cullingford (430g) and Keith Wood (420g).

PJ Wheeler's rockling and flounder won him most species, whilst Steve Fowles' 130g pout was the heaviest fish caught.

Big win for Gorge A

SHIPTON GORGE A 30 WYKE B 3

WYKE B were unfortunate to meet a full strength Shipton A team playing at their best and, needing eight points to get off bottom spot in the Weymouth & District Table Tennis League Division One, managed only three from Clive Stow.

Always competitive, Steve Bill's side gave their all but Richard Trim won his nine sets without reply and Gil Roberts was back to his best for a 9-1 return. Chris Glover had to go to five sets with Stow but eased home to gain a 9-2 return overall.

Glover and Trim made no mistakes with a 3-0 doubles win to end a good night for the Gorge.

Rugby extras

BOURNEMOUTH U16 5 BRIDPORT 39

ALTHOUGH Bridport ultimately dominated this match, they were slow to get going and went behind to a well worked Bournemouth try as they moved the ball wide and got on the outside of the Bridport defence.

Although Bridport spent most of the half defending on their own 22, scrum-half Nat Halkes-Wellstead did break from a scrum on the halfway line and made several yards before being brought down. Bridport drove over well and the ball then went through several pairs of hands, finishing with Will Challis who was driven over for the score with Bob Lester-Card converting.

After the break, Bridport made full use of the wind at their backs and drove forward on every occasion. The home side tried to clear from a 5m line-out but Bridport ran it back and in a copy of their first try, drove forward through several players, this time Harry Richardson was in possession when they reached the line and stretched out to score. Lester-Card again adding the extras.

Following another scrum on halfway, Halkes-Wellstead again broke through and chipped over the defence, he and Mike Holden chased but were just beaten by the home full-back who touched it back for a 22m drop-out. The kick was collected by Eli Halkes-Wellstead who danced through the defenders for a magnificent solo try.

The blues next score also came from a scrum when Halkes-Wellstead passed out of the tackle and it quickly reached Haggerty who powered through the attempted tackles to reach the line with bodies hanging off him. Lester-Card again converting.

Richardson scored again with a pick up and drive from the back of a scrum, and after a penalty goal by Lester-Card, the blues final try came from running back another Bournemouth clearance kick, this time the ball was moved across the pitch with Dylan White making good yards down the right-hand touchline. When finally tackled, he slipped the ball inside to Richardson who still had some work to do to evade the tacklers and run in from the 22.

The conversion was too close to the short posts to call and the home side was given the benefit of the doubt and Bridport ran out well deserved winners.

NO COUNTY FINAL FOR U13s

A DOUBLE from Rob Thomson in front of his visiting university mates helped Lyme Regis to close the gap on the leading pack at the top of the Perry Street League on Saturday.

Thomson scored the third and fourth goals in a convincing win over Barrington at the Davey Fort – the Seaside's eighth in a row.

It took 41 minutes for Lyme to find the breakthrough and it was top scorer Julien Simier who broke the deadlock with his 17th goal of the campaign. Joel Gostling netted soon after the restart and from there on the points were safe.

Next Saturday Lyme entertain relegation threatened Perry Street. Even allowing for their opponents' lowly position the Seaside's will be hard pressed to match the last two season's results in the corresponding fixture: 9-1 and 9-0!

After a week off both Lyme Reserves and Bantams return to action with tough looking fixtures against their respective Divisional leaders.

The Ressies make the trip to Baker's Field to take on Winsham United with memories of a 4-2 Arthur Gage defeat by the same opponents just two weeks ago fresh in their minds.

Meanwhile the Bantams entertain Crewkerne Town Reserves.

Uplyme's slim promotion hopes were ended as they suffered their sixth league defeat of the season a 5-0 drubbing on their own turf by new Division Two leaders Beaminster.

Manager Rob Coombe takes his troops, who failed to score for the first time this season, off to Dowligh & Donyatt for a Daisy Hutchings Cup first round tie at the weekend.

Uplyme should be wary of a Dowligh team still smarting from a 6-1 home mauling by promotion rivals Shepton Beauchamp.

Charmouth looked good for the first-half of their Division One match at Crewkerne but shipped five goals after the turnaround and remain rooted to the foot of the table.

On Saturday The Robins visit an Ilminster Town Colts side who will no doubt be encouraged by a 6-0 thrashing of Norton Athletic.

◆ Lyme Regis U13s' hopes of a third successive Dorset County final evaporated in a 1-0 semi-final defeat at Branksome.

Lyme were guilty of failing to convert three early chances and hampered by an ankle injury that forced Richard Legg off the field. The youngster went for precautionary x-rays at Dorchester hospital.

Goals from Finlay MacClean (2), Henry Davy and Cody Bowditch earned Lyme Under 11s a 4-2 win over Seaton A.
